

Additional information

2 and # 3, # 5

When the camp was established in 1935, a hand-dug well 40' deep was used as a water source for the camp. This well was periodically bailed out to remove sediment

It was replaced with the drilled well

October 4, 1991 which is used today.