RE: 78-4037 78-12253

We have received your Notice of Error requesting the period of use be changed to accommodate stock water use in our recommendation. To accomplish this you need to file an amended claim that lists stock water as a purpose of use. Unfortunately, we cannot process an amendment before we have to file the Director's Report. We suggest that after you receive your copy of the Director's Report, you file an objection using Standard Form #1 (Objection) with the court. Also send an amended claim with the Standard Form #4 (Notice of Late Notice of Claim or Amended Notice of Claim) and an Amended Claim adding stock water to purpose of use. Forms #1 & #4 can be found on line at - <http://www.srba.state.id.us/srba2.htm>.

If you have any questions feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

Field Exam Notes

Date of Exam: June 26, 2005

The point of diversion (POD) is on Denny Creek, tributary to the Little Salmon River, and has a GPS location of the N45° 17' 50.2" by W116° 20' 17". The diversion consists of a small dam with a short screened intake pipe and control valve (Photo 1). The pipe empties into a ditch that follows the contour of the land to a concrete box (Photo 2). The upper field is flood irrigated from the area around the concrete box through the use of a canvas dam and a shovel to channel water. Water is also diverted down a six inch (6") metal pipe, the beginning of which is inside the concrete box (Photos 2 & 3). Excess water is channeled into the draw to the south. The pipe takes water to the lower field where irrigation is done by sprinklers. The line is pressurized by gravity. On the day of the exam only the upper field was being irrigated.

On the day of the exam, flow measurements were taken along the ditch between the POD and the concrete box using the orange peel method. Three (3) timed measurements were taken over a ten foot (10') length of the ditch totaling forty eight (48) seconds. The general profile of the ditch along that length is shown below (not to scale).

The flow is given by:

$$(20\text{in})(2\text{in})\left(\frac{\text{ft}^3}{144\text{in}^2}\right)\frac{30\text{ft}}{48\text{sec}} \approx 0.1736 \approx \mathbf{0.18\text{ cfs}}$$

$$\frac{(20)(2)}{144} \times \frac{30}{48} = .78$$

There are two (2) land owners involved with this claim: Spectrum NW LLC and the Cross-O Ranch. The representative I dealt with for the Cross-O Ranch was Aaron Wilson (208-628-3324) and the representative I dealt with for Spectrum NW LLC was Jeff Dean (208-682-2719). At one time, the entire property belonged to the Cross-O Ranch.

The POD is on Spectrum NW LLC property. The ditch leading away from the POD goes onto Cross-O land where the concrete box is located. The place of use (POU) is divided into two (2) main locations: the upper field and the lower field. The lower field is further divided into land owned by Spectrum NW LLC and land owned by the Cross-O Ranch. The entire upper field is on Cross-O property. That part of the lower field that is south of the road belongs to the Cross-O Ranch. That part of the lower field that is north of the road belongs to Spectrum NW LLC. Photo 4 is taken from GPS location N45° 17' 58.8" by W116° 21' 3.0", referred to as the vantage point. This photo shows the field belonging to Spectrum NW and a portion of the lower field belonging to the Cross-O Ranch.

Mr. Wilson stated that his grandfather, Firman Gotzinger, the owner of record listed on the claim, quit irrigating that part of the POU north of the road (now owned by Spectrum NW) over twenty (20) years ago because the water line going under the road to irrigate it was too light had broke down due to traffic. According to Mr. Wilson, the line was not completely severed, but kept getting clogged and that his grandfather decided that doing repair work would cost more than the value of the gain on such a small parcel of land. Mr. Dean stated that he had never irrigated the land, but planned to in the near future. The mainline for the sprinkler irrigation system on this land is still in place (Photo 5).

Mr. Dean stated that there was also a portion of land he called the "Graveyard Pasture" (Photo 7) which was also irrigated in the past. Mr. Dean pointed out water coming down the side of a hill (GPS location N45° 17' 52.1" by W116° 20' 46.6") and indicated that that was where the water came from to irrigate the Graveyard Pasture (Photo 6). Upon inspection, it was found that this water was the waste water from the upper field. Mr. Wilson and his son Cody both stated on separate occasions that they had no recollection of the Graveyard Pasture as ever being irrigated.

A walk through was done in and around the Graveyard Pasture and although the area looked as though it may have been cultivated sometime in the past, no conclusive evidence was found that the Graveyard Pasture had recently or at any time been irrigated. Aaron Wilson latter stated that he had talked to his grandmother about the Graveyard Pasture. She is over 90 years old and stated that she knew the people who buried their children there and that the Graveyard Pasture had never been irrigated.

Mr. Wilson stated that he pastures about 300 head of cattle on the fields during the winter and that the cattle drink out of the ditch.

The legal location of the POD is given on the claim as SESE, Sec. 28, Rge. 01E, Twp. 23N, BM. The actual location is SWSE of the same section, township and range. The legal location of the POU was not determined but the physical location is indicated on the aerial photo.

In conversations with Mr. Dean and Mr. Wilson and a through a search of the Idaho Department of Water Resources (IDWR) public web site, no other water rights with the same POD or POU as this claim were found.
