Priority date description: The first parcel of this property was purchased in 1959 by my father from Wilson Miller. A cabin and garage were built that year with an accompanying 40' well sunk. Water has been used on a continuing basis from that source ever since. The second well was sunk in approximately 1970, but never put it into use until we bought the parcel holding the well in 2004 from Wilson Miller's son, John Miller. The well was opened that year and used ever since.
