REASONS SUPPORTING EACH BOX CHECKED

In response to Statement of the Objection items 1, 3, 3.a, 3.c, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 12.a, and 14, and all allegations of the objection regarding these items, IDWR responds as follows.

The director's report recommends right no. 34-00341 to the objector to water from Pinto Creek, which was decreed in Utah Construction Co. v. Abbott, Equity No. 222 (D.E.Id. 1923).

IDWR conducts a limited investigation of small domestic and stockwater claims (as defined by Idaho Code section 42-111). IDWR generally does not field examine small D&S claims; IDWR's recommendations of small stockwater claims to the U.S. Forest Service established by beneficial use in Basin 34 were based on maps and other documentation provided by USFS.

IDWR generally does not require proof of priority date for small D&S claims based on beneficial use. However, rights to the use of surface water from the Big Lost River and tributaries were adjudicated in Utah Construction Co. v. Abbott, the source of water for this right is tributary to the Big Lost River, and the United States was a party to that case. The United States is therefore precluded by the doctrine of res judicata from asserting a beneficial use priority the same as or earlier than the date of the decree, March 15, 1923.

Physical diversion is required for an appropriation unless an exception is established by statute. Idaho Code sections 42-113 and 42-114 establish an exception to the diversion requirement for watering of domestic livestock. All rights to water from the Snake River Basin in Idaho are required to be claimed in the SRBA, although the adjudication of small D&S rights may be deferred as provided by order of the SRBA District Court.

The burden rests with the United States to prove the right, and on the objector to prove the objection, in accordance with these parties' respective burdens of proof.
