Common Questions and Answers About Moving

Q. What should I do if I am not yet receiving mail at my new address?

A. If it is more than ten days after the start date of your move and no mail has arrived, call 1-800-ASK-USPS (1-800-275-8777).

Q. How should I let my friends, family members, magazine publishers, and business correspondents know of my new address?

A. Usually, magazines and business correspondence contain cards or instructions to inform them of your new address and the date you will be moving. In addition, your local post office can supply you, free of charge, with postcards that you can use as a convenient way to notify anyone of your new address and the date of your move.

Q. Do I need to register to vote?

A. Yes, except for residents of North Dakota. Even previously registered voters need to reregister after they move (or if they change their last name). For information, see your local Supervisor of Elections at least 30 days before the next election.

As required by law, the Postal Service does not provide customer names or addresses to third parties.

RE: Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA)
Water Rights #67-14058A, 67-14058B and 67-14128

[David Crosby] m. Lynn Johnson

Dear Lynn:

It was nice talking with you. I'm glad our telephone tag paid off. As you requested during our phone conversation, I have updated your address to Ontario and David's to Cambridge. Once you move to Indian Valley (I'm envious), send us a note with your new address and telephone number and we'll update our records.

I have enclosed a Notice of Change of Water Right Ownership form for each of you. Please send the completed forms to my attention. I'm sending you postage-paid envelopes also.

Please call me toll-free at 1-800/451-4129 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Sally Sherman
