SUBJ: CONV. w/ ROGER YOUNG

When discussing this water right today in the office, Young said he has leveled some ground (shown below) and is now irrigating 11 additional acres, the entire 40. A 1977 BLM aerial photo he had showed this to be true. He said he is diverting no more ~~more~~ water to do this. Although the procedure to cover this ground with a water right was explained along with two of the implications of not doing so, he chose not to claim it in the adjudication nor file a new application.
