Re: 02-7088

Dear Col. Stowell:

In reply to your letter of June 17, 1981, you are essentially correct in your conclusions to the Order of Joinder and Summons. Claims for permits are not required, but when proof is nearly due, as is the case with 02-7088, we suggest you claim the right at this time. That is, file a claim if you will be submitting proof later this year. If you will let the permit lapse and be cancelled, you can ignore this letter.

I have taken the liberty of partially completing a claim for your use. The information is taken directly from the permit. You will notice the condition in the remarks that means you are claiming a license at this time that will be issued at a later date. If you will be submitting proof on your permit, please sign the enclosed claim having your signature notarized and return to this office with a $10 filing fee.

Thank you for your interest and cooperation. I have placed a note of your address change in water right permits 02-7088, 02-7155, and 02-7186.
