To whom it may concern.

I am writing this statement to give the dates of the first use of the water from the Spokane river on lot 2. I have the warranty deed dated 9/3/1958 showing the sale of lot 2 to Clark L. Johnson from Frank Rupert company.

Clark Johnson built a small cabin and lived there. In 1959, it was not allowed for people to have outhouses so cabin owners had to have a bathroom with a flush toilet and the proper septic tanks.

Clark was one of the first people to live on Harbor Island full time.

Clark and I were married 3/2/63 and I moved from Spokane, WA with my three children. We remodeled the small cabin and started building the large home in 1964.

On 6/10/1964, we bought lot 83 from Geraldine wood and had the well drilled there.

So you can see that the water use has been constant since those dates.

Any other information that is needed, I will try to be of use in providing it. I hope this will be of help.

I and my first husband, Jim Tuttle along with his brother, Bob Tuttle bought lot 4 in 1957, so I have been on the scene for some time.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

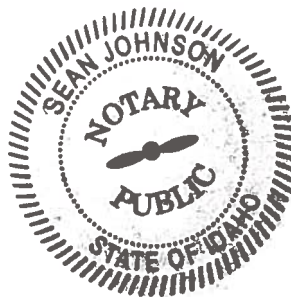

Thais Johnson
