Case No. 39576

) ORDER RE: SETTLEMENT
) CONFERENCE INITIAL DISCLOSURE
)
)
) SUBCASE NO: 36-00035B

A Mandatory Settlement Conference has been set in the above subcase(s) for June 12, 1995. In the order setting the Settlement Conference, the parties were required to serve "Initial Disclosure" on all parties to the subcase by a certain date. That date was usually 21 days before the Settlement Conference.

Recently, several parties have requested that Initial Disclosure be made at the Settlement Conference instead of 21 days in advance. It is apparent that changing the Initial Disclosure date as suggested will be more convenient to the parties and may facilitate the settlement process.

Therefore, IT IS ORDERED that Initial Disclosure may be made at the Settlement Conference as scheduled. All other parts of the Order Setting Mandatory Settlement Conference remain unchanged.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
