Case No. 39576	)
	)	AFFIDAVIT OF C. A. DAW
	)
_____	)

COMES NOW, C. A. Daw, first being duly sworn, and says as follows:

I am over the age of 18 years, competent to testify and testifying from actual knowledge of the facts herein recited.

I am one of the attorneys for Respondent and make this affidavit for the reason that I am better informed of the facts herein recited than are the parties.

Starting at 4:10 p.m., Friday, November 10th, 1995, (the Veterans Day Holiday), our office received by facsimile transmission a notice of taking deposition in the above entitled matter. Said notice was bundled with five other notices on related subcases and the entire transmission was not received until approximately 4:30 p.m. A true and correct copy of the Notice of Taking Deposition is attached to this affidavit as exhibit A.

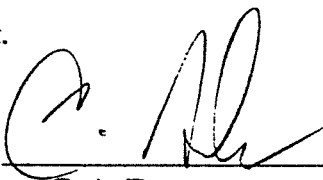

This office immediately informed Mr. Brown's office, by facsimile letter, that the deposition was not scheduled appropriately. A true and correct copy of the facsimile letter and the verification of transmission are attached to this affidavit as exhibit B.

The notices of taking deposition were not withdrawn according to the time frame requested in the letter. It was necessary to prepare the motions for protective order and affidavits after hours on Saturday and on Sunday morning and make special arrangements for notarization of this affidavits and transport and hand delivery of these documents over a holiday weekend. The discourtesy and poor judgment shown by Mr. Brown in this matter in scheduling a deposition on one day's notice should not be taken lightly and should merit an award of fees and costs to Respondent.

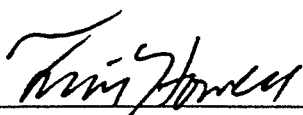

Further your affiant sayeth not.
