Subcase Nos.: See Exhibit A

Case No. 39576

ORDER DENYING EMERGENCY
MOTION TO CONTINUE STATUS
CONFERENCE

34-13084 eval

On December 18, 1995, the United States filed its Emergency Motion to Continue Status Conference. The Motion asserted that the United States' Office of Management and Budget directed executive agencies, including the Department of Justice, to modify their operations in response to the lapse of appropriations as of midnight December 15.

While this Court understands the difficulties with the budget constraints, it is committed to moving all cases forward as quickly as possible. The subcases the United States seeks to continue were last heard at a Status Conference on August 16, 1995. At that time, counsel was to inform the court within a week as to available dates for an additional status conference in October and early November, 1995. The court did not receive the requested available dates and on September 8, 1995 this court set the subcases listed in Exhibit A for a status conference on December 20, 1995. Therefore, IT IS ORDERED that the Emergency Motion to Continue Status Conference is denied.

DATED December 19, 1995.
