As this points to the great benefits and advantages to be realized by farmers, laborers, and other persons who are subjected by the most atrocious means to the gross exploitation of their labor, by the great capitalists, it is not surprising that the latter have endeavored to prevent the dissemination of this knowledge. They have not, however, succeeded, and the great masses of the people are not becoming, night after night, any more ignorant. They are not becoming any less than 50,000,000, nor are they becoming less than 50,000,000, nor are they becoming less than 50,000,000.
