went to carpenter creek and cut locks off shop and pump house, replaced. Found there is a 6" drilled well could not check the static or depth due to a torque arrestor in well. The well has a 3/4 hp control box and assuming a 3/4 pumpend, well ran for 18 minutes at 10 gpm before running low on water, 180 gallons the ran at 3 to 3.5 gpm for 1.5 hrs, water was clear and cold and smelled like sulfur, so we disinfected well. The pressure tank and controls were all working and in good shape. There is a filter system but could not check due to lines were froze

DECLARATION OF TRUST

Endeavoring to be legally bound, on this 8th day of January, 2009, we, Michael D. Clark and Dorothy M. Clark of 1055 E. Day Road, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho 83815, referred to hereafter as the Grantors, acknowledge and proclaim that we hereby convey, transfer, and deliver to the trustees of the hereby created revocable inter vivos TRUST all our right, title, and interest to certain of our jointly and separately held assets.

This Trust shall be known as the Michael and Dorothy Clark Family Trust and as the grantors of said Trust, we hereby appoint Michael D. Clark and Dorothy M. Clark of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, hereafter known as the Trustees, to administer those assets held in the above named Trust under the terms and conditions set forth in this Declaration of Trust.

In the occurrence of the resignation, in competency, or death of the surviving trustee, the grantors hereby appoint the following as successor trustees:

Dean W. Clark, 1303 N. William Street, Post Falls, Idaho 83854
M. Leland Clark, 15210 Dawn Meadows Drive, Houston, Texas 77068
Joseph P. Clark, 3908 Aaron Court, Bellingham, Washington 98226
Dinah J. Walters, 5834 197th St. N.E., Kenmore, Washington 98028

Upon assuming the trusteeship, the successor trustees shall be bound by the conditions and have all the powers and authorities granted to trustees as set forth in this Trust, and upon assuming such duties and authorities of the trusteeship, shall be recognized and acknowledged as trustees.

The grantors declare that the assets held in this Trust shall consist of properties which carry verification of title evidencing them to be the assets of this Trust, including but not limited to assets registered by title approximating the ensuing form: "Michael D. Clark and/or Dorothy M. Clark, Trustee under date of trust January 8, 2009."

The grantor retains the right to remove assets from the Trust or add other assets to the Trust. The aggregate of assets included in the Trust at any time shall be referred to as the Trust Estate.

CONDITIONS AND TERMS OF TRUST ADMINISTRATION: The grantors of the Trust hereby convey to the trustees such discretionary powers necessary and appropriate to administer this Trust, including but not limited to the power to sell, mortgage, encumber, pledge, hypothecate, lease, rent, improve, repair, maintain, invest and reinvest the Trust Estate property. The trustees hereby accept these powers and all other conditions and terms of this Declaration of Trust and agree to care for and manage the Trust Estate prudently with such actions as deemed in the best interest and furtherance of the Trust.

After the payment of all taxes, assessments, and all charges incidental to the management of the Trust, the disposition of the principal and the net income generated by the Trust Estate shall be as follows:

During the lifetime of the grantors, the trustees shall pay to the grantors as primary beneficiaries of the Trust all income of the Trust Estate and such portions of the principal as the grantors may from time to time direct, or otherwise as directed by the grantors during their lifetime, or as it may appear necessary for the welfare, health, education, comfort, and maintenance of the customary lifestyle of the grantors during the physical or mental incompetence of the grantors.

Upon the death of the grantors, the trustees shall pay from the Trust Estate, if so directed by the personal representative of the grantors' estate, the funeral and burial expenses as well as any indebtedness of a final illness of the then deceased grantor. In the absence of any probate proceedings, the trustee shall settle such claims from the Trust Estate. Upon the settlement of the current private, commercial, or governmental obligations of the Trust and grantors, the trustee shall distribute the residue of the Trust Estate as directed in the Schedule of trust Beneficiaries attached hereto and made a part of this document according to the Schedule of trust Beneficiaries and all other sections, amendments and memorandums of and to this Trust.

SCHEDULE OF TRUST BENEFICIARIES

In the event of the disappearance of the grantors, the trustees shall assume the administration and management of the Trust according to the provisions set forth in this Declaration of Trust. After a period of twelve (12) months, should the grantor not be heard from or bodies found, the Trust Estate shall be distributed to the beneficiaries as provided in the Schedule of Trust Beneficiaries.

After consideration of any outright distributions of undivided assets listed in this Schedule of Trust Beneficiaries, the balance of the Trust Estate shall be distributed, subject to amendments and memorandums to the trust, to the following four listed persons in equal shares:

Dean W. Clark, 1303 N. William Street, Post Falls, Idaho 83854
M. Leland Clark, 15210 Dawn Meadows Drive, Houston, Texas 77068
Joseph P. Clark, 3908 Aaron Court, Bellingham, Washington 98226
Dinah J. Walters, 5834 197th St. N.E., Kenmore, Washington 98028

Upon this distribution there should be no remaining residue within the Trust Estate and the trustees shall terminate the trust.

Trustees shall not be compensated for administering the Trust.

The physical or mental incapacity of the grantors shall be certified in writing by two physicians not related by blood or marriage to the grantors or any beneficiary of the hereby created Trust. Upon written confirmation of a return to physical or mental competency of a previously afflicted grantor by two physicians not related by blood or marriage to the grantors or any beneficiary of the hereby created Trust, said grantor shall again assume the full responsibilities of grantor as set forth in the terms and conditions of this Declaration of Trust.

No interest of a beneficiary of this Trust can be alienated. No beneficiary can assign, pledge, encumber, or otherwise transfer an interest in the Trust Estate, nor shall such interest be garnished, attached, or levied upon or otherwise subjected to any proceedings whether at law or in equity.

Each beneficiary of the Trust hereby created shall be liable for his or her proportionate share of any estate taxes that may be imposed by all local, state, or federal entity upon the share of the Trust Estate held for or distributed to a beneficiary upon the death of the grantor.

Upon the death of the grantor the decisions of the successor trustees shall be final and binding in regard to vague or unclear provisions of the Trust subject to dispute among the parties to the Trust.

The grantors hereby exempt this Declaration of Trust from the registration requirement of any municipality, court, government or public agency other than authorized government tax authorities.

This Trust shall be enforced, interpreted, and administered in accordance with the laws of the state of Idaho.

Trustees shall serve without bond.

The grantor expressly reserves the right to alter, amend, modify or revoke any part of this Trust deemed revocable as created by this Declaration of Trust.

We execute this, the Michael and Dorothy Clark Family Trust, on January 8, 2009, and certify that this Declaration of Trust correctly states the terms and conditions under which the trust property is to be held, managed, and disposed of by the trustees.

Michael D. Clark, Grantor

Dorothy M. Clark, Grantor

The foregoing Declaration of Trust naming Michael D. Clark and Dorothy M. Clark as Grantors of the Trust is hereby approved and accepted.
