I arrived in Challis June 6-1910
With my parents and grandparents
I was 6 years old.

As soon as I could, I rode horses, milked cows and had to herd the cows that they didn't get in the alfalfa and get bloated.

There was water everywhere.
The ditch that came from Challis Creek watered the hill side and came clear up to the house.

There were ugly black eels
in the ditch which I didn't like.

Also once in a while the irrigator would find a salmon
trout that was flipping around the brought home and which we ate. There were quite a few that died because the water ran out
when the ditch was changed.

The ditch that starts in Pira field and comes down along the highway was old and full of willows which my brother and I had to cut with our pocket knives. This ditch watered the hill side above the house also the yard around the house.

This place is well watered. A stream comes from the north. Challis Creek and a ditch from the south from springs out of Pira field, (originally Dodge and Bennet).

There is also a slough about the middle of the ranch that starts above the Kenneth ^(go Adams) Bradbury house and comes through Philpe then Stephens to the river.

Philpe & Carrigan, Bishop water the meadow by taking out a big ditch and spreading it around. This was the same then as it is now. ^{My grandson} Mitch is my grandson.
