RE: Coeur d'Alene-Spokane River Basin Adjudication (CSRBA) Claim

Dear Burna:

The Idaho Department of Water Resources (IDWR) has completed initial review of the adjudication claim that you filed. A review of your claim indicates domestic use from a ground water source and irrigation directly from a surface water source. In order to claim both uses from different sources, separate claims will need to be filed.

You may amend the claim you submitted for either the domestic use or irrigation use, but would need to indicate the Priority Date of that use or date water was first put to beneficial use and resubmit to us with the filing fees. You then would need to file a separate claim for the other water use and submit it with the appropriate filing fees.

I am returning your claim and your check for the filing fees you submitted. I am also enclosing an additional claim form and instructions for you.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at 208-287-4909 or contact our Northern Region office in Coeur d'Alene at 208-762-2800 if you have any questions or concerns

Sincerely,

Lori Harris
