EVIDENCE OF PRIORITY Statement

This statement made by Hoyt McClain is primary record of the existing water well at the church. Hoyt McClain was born on April 14, 1925. His parents and grandparents were charter members of the church. The church in Pinehurst was organized in 1931. The building was erected in 1933. He was a young child and knows of these facts, but not in detail. The church was later recorded with the State of Idaho on July 25, 1949. Between the original construction and 1949, a basement and foundation were added under the original log construction. There is a well in the basement that provided water for the restrooms and kitchen that was created in the construction of the basement. The addition of the well provided water for church functions that had not been originally part of the church building. This modification happened after 1933 and prior to the formal registration of the existence of the church in 1949. The facilities including the well and water service in the basement were in existence at the time of Hoyt McClain's wedding and reception at the church on July 3, 1945. The date when the well was dug is not known.

The Pinehurst Water District was begun as a public utility in October 1959. After the water district initiated service in the community, the church and parsonage were connected to the public water system. The church and parsonage continue to be connected to the public water system and rely on the water district to provide reliable and safe water for use at the church.

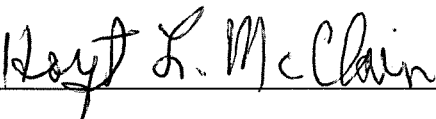

The well is still in existence and the church intends to establish water rights to facilitate the use of the well water.
