Subject: Applicaiton for permit 95-14435

Hey Eric,

Long time no talk! Hope things are going well. I have just been hiding here in Adjudication ☺

I have a question for you. I was reviewing NIA claim 95-4715. This is a domestic claim for 4 homes. It appears that application for permit 95-14435 covers one of the 4 homes identified on the claim. However, I got to looking at the application and see it was filed in 2011 but has yet to be advertised or anything. It is still identified as being an active application, but nothing seems to be happening with it.

When you have a time could we check into what is going on with this application? I do not intend to include the home identified under application 95-14435 on the recommendation for claim 95-4715 because it appears that this 4th home was added after the claimed priority date. However, I wanted to check that 95-14435 was still valid.

Thanks,
Craig
