Dear Mr. Maxey:

Enclosed is a letter and map from Harold Thaut whose parents built the house we now live in. The map shows the two houses, the location of the spring, and the roads.

Harold Thaut told me the spring was developed by putting tiles down into the spring to collect the water then running a pipe from the spring to the house. The water for our house came from that spring until 2006 when a well was put in and shared with the Sylvesters.

Harold Thaut also told me at some point in time the spring was shared with Duane Pierce, and he thinks something may have been recorded about the transfer of the water right back to the Gardiners. I am wondering if you can check into what Duane and Kathy Pierce have recorded for their water rights and see if this spring is at some point in time listed.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,
