RE: Evidence of Priority Date for CSRBA Claims 94-4221 & 94-4222

Dear Mr. Clelland,

Enclosed are several copies of deeds obtained from the Shoshone County Recorder's Office, which show the chain of ownership from September 1926 until November 1989, when I purchased the property. I live about two miles east of Mullan, Idaho, which is also known as Larson. My legal description is 2700: Portion MS 2749: 286407. Briefly, the chain of ownership is as follows:

U. S. to Snow Storm Silver Lead Co.;
Snow Storm Silver Lead Co. to Greenough;
Greenough to Scott;
Scott to Syringa Properties;
Syringa to Burgess;
Burgess to Maxwell; and Maxwell to Saylor.

My water is diverted from Daisy Gulch Creek. Adjacent to my property on the west was the Snow Storm mill and three story boarding house. The Greenough family were owners of Snow Storm Mining Company. They appropriated water to D. R. Scott in the late 20s or early 30s, and Scott appropriated water to the Hendrickson family, who own property north and east of my property. Unfortunately, all the Hendricksons, who all lived to their late 80s and early 90s, are deceased. Thus a notarized affidavit from my neighbors, the Hendricksons - who knew the history of our water system, is not possible.

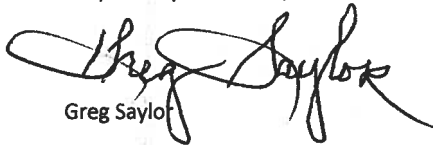

The documents I have provided are intended to establish beneficial use for Claim 94-4221. Unfortunately, I have no physical evidence to establish beneficial use for Claim 94-4222. I do recall my neighbors telling me stories how people would sneak out to "Old Man Scott's" pond and steal the fish he was raising.

The pond is still there, and much shallower from years of silt. The water level rises in the spring and drops late summer.

If my neighbors were still alive, I know I would be able to provide an affidavit to establish beneficial use.

In conclusion, I have provided the best evidence my research has yielded. If you have any questions, please contact me at 208-682-5506 or saylor1248@gmail.com. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Greg Saylor". The signature is stylized with a large, looping initial "G" and a long, sweeping underline that extends to the right.

This system supplies Mary Hendrickson Lunen, Walt and Mary Hendrickson, Ed (deceased) and Rosie Hendrickson, Al Hendrickson (deceased - the old farm house) and Greg and Debbie Saylor, in that order. The line was re-routed in 1994 changing the order of water supply. Originally the order was Greg Saylor, Al Hendrickson, Ed Hendrickson, Walt Hendrickson and Mary Hendrickson Lunen.

According to Mary Hendrickson Lunen, who is 93 years old, the Hendrickson Family homesteaded about a quarter mile southeast of the present houses and got their water from a creek at that location. In the early 1930s, they built at the present location (Larson) ^{old farm house} and got their water from D.R. Scott. The old farm house and barn are on the south side of the road. The system expanded to the north side of the road when Ed, Walt and Mary Lunen Hendrickson built their houses.

All five parties listed above have paid 20% each of all costs incurred in upgrading and maintaining the system.

100-TON MILL FOR SNOWSTORM

Larson, Idaho, Mine Being Equipped by Thomas Dress
Copper Ore.

Nearly all of the equipment required has been received by the Oregon-Idaho Mining and Concentrating company for the installation of a concentration mill on the Snowflake mine at Larson, Idaho. It will be installed by Clarence M. Thom, metallurgist, formerly with the Tamarack & Custer, who has a sublease on the property, obtained from W. J. Stratton and associates, lessees. Mr. Thom integrated Portland people in the enterprise and the Oregon-Idaho company was formed for their benefit.

The large bins that received ore when the old Slocum town was yielding on a large scale have been formed into a mill building. Tests of the ore have shown its responsiveness to flotation. The equipment to be used will include a Fairbanks mill and the capacity of the plant will be 100 tons daily, according to a Wallace Idaho report.

is nearly completed and Dept. Linson has a force of men installing the new machinery, including a large new compressor and an electric pump that will have ample capacity to keep the mine free of water. It is expected to begin sinking soon and the present plans call for the reaching of the 1000-ft level by April 1. From there the crosscut will be run to the vein.

Twenty-one dead and missing sums up the extent of the fire that started in the depths of the Pennsylvania mine, one of the properties of the Anaconda Copper Mining Co., this week. Nine bodies have been recovered. No hope is entertained for the missing. All were victims of a fire which started near the air shaft about 9 o'clock on the 14th. Two of the dead were rescuers, who were overcome while at work underground.

Troy.

The Snowstorm Mining Co. has taken over the Banner & Bangle mine near here. According to the plans of the Snowstorm management, the mill, located at Larsen (Idaho), will be dismantled about March 1 and the machinery taken to Troy. The mill is of 250 tons capacity and the machinery is said to be in good condition. It was designed to treat the copper ores of the Snowstorm mine and with slight changes and some additions it is expected to meet all requirements of the lead-zinc ores of the property. The Banner & Bangle is quite extensively developed through three tunnels. The known ore shoot is over 1000 ft. long, and a raise connecting the lower tunnel with the intermediate proves continuous ore between the two levels, and there is also ore in the upper tunnel. The ore is both lead and zinc and it is stated that there are no difficulties in the way of its separation and recovery. The company owns a water right which will be utilized for the generation of electric power for the mine and mill and for transporting the ore to the mill. A dam is now being constructed which will make available an abundance of water power and an electric line will be constructed from the mine to the railroad at Troy, a distance of 5 miles. The company is now employing about 200 men, most of whom are occupied in building the dam and work preliminary to the actual construction of the electric line. The work now under way and plans for its completion involve a large expenditure.

1,000,000 TONS IN SNOWSTORM
Estimate of New Lease—Will Erect Mill.

The presence of 1,000,000 tons of ore containing 2 to 5 per cent copper in the Snowstorm mine at Lawson, Idaho, is estimated by T. W. Roberts of Mullan, Idaho, head of the Roberts-Coeur d'Alene Mining and Milling company, says the Wallace Miner. With the copper are values in gold and silver.

The only expenditure need be for a flotation mill, it is stated. The lease is for six years and the leasing company is capitalized for $100,000. The property is credited with a yield of $11,000,000, before the development of the flotation process. As a result, much ore of low grade became stoppage filling in that period.

ORE MOVED BY STREAM

Carried Mile Through Pipe From Snowstorm.

The outgoing transportation problem of the Oregon-Idaho Mining and Concentrating company, operating on the Snowstorm mine at Laramie, Idaho, has been solved without the use of trucks or a tramway. The concentrates are carried by water through a two-inch pipe from the mill to the railroad, a distance of four feet and freed at the lower terminal of much of its moisture before loaded. The method was introduced by Clarence Thom, metallurgist and manager, for use on the Snowstorm in the first in the Casper d'Aene region.

Operations of the mill, started on a basis of a shift a day, will be increased as adjustments proved. The feed contains copper and silver.
