To Whom It May Concern,

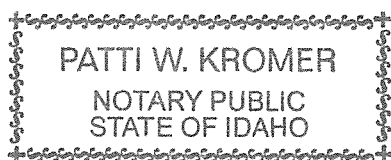

This is my statement concerning CSRBA 94-4032. This information is based on what my mom told me, and also on what I know about this land. There is no longer any family, friends, or neighbors still alive who can verify this.

At one time my grandfather, Earl Lucus owned 100 acres of land here. He sold off all but about 10 acres, (actually 9.4 now) which is the place where I live and am making this claim. My mom was born in 1922, and they moved here and obtained the land when she was a child. My grandfather was living here, until he was elderly and had to let the state have a lien on the property as he had no money. When he passed away in the sixties, my parents bought the property from the state. They owned it until their passing (mom 2007, and stepdad 2008) at which time I inherited it. I am the third generation to live on this piece of property.

Sincerely,

Sharron F. Rewoldt
