An Amended Order Setting Deadline, Settlement Conference and Second Scheduling Conference was issued April 9, 2015. In the Amended Order, the Court scheduled settlement conferences for these subcases.

Due to the logistics of settlement negotiations, including room size and limitations on communication, the court limited participation. After the Amended Order issued, attorney for numerous parties, Norm Semanko, moved to change the venue and alter the limitation on participation.

Mr. Semanko requested a change of location from the Idaho Department of Environmental Quality to the Red Lion Templins Hotel in Post Falls. In addition, Mr. Semanko requested that the limitation of three (3) clients per attorney or law firm be increased to allow more of Mr. Semanko's and Mr. Payne's clients to attend. The request was to allow three (3) participants for NWPOA, three (3) participants for NIWRA, three (3) participants for CLPOA, and one (1) participant for Rathdrum Power. In addition, Mr. Semanko notified the Court that Givens Pursley requests to have five (5) participants and that Morris and Wolff requests to have five (5) participants.

Mr. Semanko noted that if the Settlement Conference was moved to the Red Lion Templins Hotel, that conference room would have room for additional people. Mr. Semanko requested that up to forty (40) additional clients be allowed to attend in addition to the ten (10) clients he and Mr. Payne would have actively negotiating,

The Motion is granted in part. The location of the May 8th Settlement Conference is changed from the Idaho Department of Environmental Quality to the Red Lion Templins Hotel.

The limitation of three (3) clients per attorney or law firm is adjusted as follows: Mr. Semanko and Mr. Payne shall be allowed three (3) participants for NWPOA, three (3) participants for NIWRA, three (3) participants for CLPOA, and one (1) participant for Rathdrum Power. In addition, Givens Pursley shall be allowed five (5) participants, and Morris and Wolff shall be allowed five (5) participants. All other attorneys or firms shall be allowed three (3) participants as previously ordered. Clients who are attending, other than those who are designated participants, shall attend to listen to the proceedings and will not be participating directly in negotiations.
