Re: Subcase 92-10502, Objection to Recommendation

District Court,

Regarding water right subcase number 92-10502, formerly water right number 92-07090, it is the belief that Douglas and Darcy McInturff are to be named sole owners and Jeffrey P. Baker and William Ross are to be removed from this claim.

Water right 92-10502, formerly 92-07090, was awarded solely to Al Bruner, St. Maries Wild Rice Growers, on July 21, 1981. Douglas bought the wild rice business on July 15, 2001, and with the business, he purchased water right 92-10502 formerly 92-07090. Change of ownership of water right 92-07090 from Al Bruner to Douglas McInturff and Darcy McInturff took place December 5, 2006, with receipt of such change and documentation received from the Idaho Department of Water Resources. At no point in time are the names Jeffrey P. Baker and William Ross associated with 92-10502, formerly 92-07090.

Jeffrey P. Baker and William Ross simply own the land upon which the point of diversion rests. This point of diversion can, and certainly will be, modified in the near future, thereby eliminating any basis for the claim of Jeffrey P. Baker and William Ross.

Sincerely,

Douglas McInturff

Darcy McInturff
