

To whom it may concern:

My parents, Ted & Esther Muhs, purchased this property from the original homesteader, Jesse Manifold, August, 1945. Cattle drank from the creek that runs close to the present hand dug well. In 1952 the hand well was used to provide additional water for the cattle as the creek dried-up.

Esther Muhs August 26, 2015