TO: FILES : APPLIC. FOR PERMIT 37-08838 & TRANSFER #4520

SUBJECT: Analysis and Recommendation

Both of the above referenced applications deal with the same project. The project consists of developing ponds for wildlife & aesthetic purposes. The water proposed to be diverted is covered by application for permit 37-08838 for the non-consumptive component and application for transfer #4520 for the consumptive component. The project proposes to re-divert water from an existing man-made channel which conveys water diverted under right 37-07822.

Based on the files it appears that possible injury to existing water rights has been mitigated.

I RECOMMEND THAT BOTH APPLICATIONS BE APPROVED SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS:

37-08838

- Add all conditions on license 37-07822 consistent with permit language.
- The ponds must be lined with either a man-made liner or an amended soil liner to minimize seepage loss from ponds.
- Rights identified on Transfer #4520 to be delivered for mitigation in connection to delivery of this right for diversion to storage. (If rights on #4520 are cut off due to priority this right shall cease diversion to storage)
- Under control of watermaster district 37.
- Approval does not grant easement to cross land of another.

Transfer #4520

- Under control of watermaster district 37.
- Water rights to be delivered for mitigation of loss for delivery of 37-07822.
- Subject to SRBA review.

INTER-DEPARTMENT MEMO

TO: File

SUBJECT: Rinker Co. Transfer App.

FROM: Jim Stanton

DATE: 12-28-94

I was planning to hold this transfer until next Spring so that a pre-transfer exam could be conducted once the snow goes off the present P/U. However, today attorney Gary Slette called and asked that the transfer be advertised along with the application for permit that also covers the new P/U. Gary stated that his arrangement with his client and with the subdivision people calls for both filings to be advertised together. His argument is that the original P/U has not been irrigate, so has no connection to other rights on the Golden Eagle Ranch (of which the present P/U is a small part). An extension of time to avoid forfeiture was recently approved to protect the primary right on the present P/U. Based on the attorney's request, I agreed to advertise both filings together. Based on is argument, I do not plan to do a field review of this transfer.
