RE: Withdrawing Claims

Dear Sir:

As per what I think is a request for the withdrawal of your water rights claims within the Snake River Basin Adjudication, I would like to give you more information on the effects of withdrawing your claims.

The amendment of the Commencement Order which allows people to defer their filings until water rights need to be established, only pertains to domestic & stockwater uses. These water rights will be established through the Supplemental Adjudication procedures as needed.

The fees will be at least ten times as expensive if you must establish water rights through the Supplemental Adjudication procedures. It is the Department of Water Resources suggestion that if there is any chance that your rights to the water that you are using could ever be challenged, that you file your claims in the current General Adjudication.

Claims A85-1066, A82-04039, A85-07202 are for domestic and stockwater purposes and may be withdrawn in accordance with the Amendment.

Claim number A85-07204 is for irrigation purposes. Refunds for claims accepted for other than stock and domestic purposes are very limited. We will need further information of why you are requesting this claim to be refunded.

Some loaning institutes are requiring that water rights be filed before loans can be secured. Please consider your situation before withdrawing your filings.

Please write back to me explaining in more detail the reasons why you wish to withdraw your filings from the Snake River Basin Adjudication.

If I can be of further assistance please feel free to contact me at this office.

Thank you,

Allen Beardslee
Sr. Water Resource Agent
