THIS AMENDMENT is made and entered into effective November 1 1999, by and among NORTHWEST FARM CREDIT SERVICES, ACA, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States ("Seller"), and John I. Molyneux and Kristy Molyneux, husband and wife; Clyde L. Molyneux, and C. E. Molyneux and Ingeborg Molyneux, husband and wife (collectively, "Purchaser").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, Seller, Purchaser and Released Purchaser entered into a Real Estate Contract dated October 27, 1989 (the "Contract") and certain related documents referenced as Customer Note/No. 31081-301, as amended from time to time.

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to amend the Contract for the purposes stated herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The Purchaser and Seller are hereby amended as follows.
 - a. Northwest Farm Credit Services, ACA was assigned the Seller's interest in this Contract by Assignment of Real Estate Contract and Water Stock dated March 19, 1999, recorded April 2, 1999, in the records of the Blaine County, Idaho Recorder as Instrument No. 425888.
 - b. Gail L. Molyneux and Clyde L. Molyneux, who were husband and wife when this Contract was entered into on October 27, 1989, are no longer husband and wife. By quitclaim deed dated November 29, 1993, recorded in the records of the Blaine County, Idaho Recorder as Instrument No. 360817, Gail L. Molyneux deeded her interest in the property being purchased under this Contract to Clyde L. Molyneux and no longer retains an interest in the same. As of the effective date of this Amendment No. 1 to Real Estate Contract, Gail L. Molyneux is hereby removed from the Contract as a Purchaser and she shall have no further purchaser's interest in the Contract. All other named purchasers under the Contract shall remain as stated in the Contract.

2. Section 1.2 of the Contract is hereby amended in its entirety by substitution of the following:

Section 1.2: Payment of Balance: The principal balance as of November 1, 1999, in the amount of $45,585.61 shall be payable in annual installments commencing November 1, 2000, as follows.

The Installment Period is a 12-month period. Subject to consents of junior lienholders and other parties in interest as required by Lender, the remaining reamortized amount due on the Contract of $45,585.61 shall be converted to an adjustable rate on November 1, 1999. The Initial Interest Rate is 8.80 percent per annum.

This Contract has a level payment plan. Principal and interest shall be paid in installment amounts as computed by Lender to fully amortize the Contract over the term and at the interest rates provided herein, which installment payments shall begin on the first day of the Installment Period commencing on November 1, 2000, and continuing on the first day of each Installment Period thereafter. The amount of each installment due after an Interest Change Date shall be changed by Lender to the amount which Lender in its sole discretion determines is sufficient to amortize the Adjusted Principal Balance over the remaining term of the Contract.

The unpaid principal balance, unpaid interest thereon, and all other amounts remaining due shall be paid in full on the first day of November 2009, unless the debt shall be matured sooner by extra payments. The Adjusted Principal Balance on any date is the unpaid principal balance on such date minus the principal portion of any installment payment(s) which are due on or before such date and are unpaid on such date. Any payment may be applied as of the date of receipt first to accounts receivable, default interest, other amounts then due, and any remainder to the Contract balance. Subject to the preceding sentence, Purchaser may at any time pay any amount of principal in advance of its maturity. Unless Seller otherwise elects, any such payment may operate to reduce the balance owing and to discharge the obligation at an earlier date, but shall not alter the obligation to pay full installments as provided herein.

The first day of November, 2000, and the first day of November every one year thereafter is referred to as an "Interest Change Date." Interest shall accrue on the Adjusted Principal Balance on and after each Interest Change Date at the per annum interest rate equal to the sum of the Index in effect on such Interest Change Date, rounded to the nearest one-twentieth of one percent (.05%) per annum, plus 3.25 percent per annum (the "New Interest Rate"), until the next Interest Change Date. The interest rate in effect under this Contract on any date, including interest at the default interest rate, if applicable, is the "Current Interest Rate." The New Interest Rate on any Interest Change Date shall not increase or decrease from the Current Interest Rate on the date immediately prior to such Interest Change Date by more than two percent per annum. Provided, however, the New Interest Rate shall not increase or decrease from the Initial Interest Rate by more than six percent per annum. After a default, Borrowers shall pay interest at the default interest rate as provided for on this Contract. The default interest rate is not limited by the interest rate caps contained in this paragraph unless this Contract is subject to the Truth in Lending law. The Index in effect on any Interest Change Date is the per annum rate of interest equal to the weekly average yield on United States Treasury securities adjusted to a constant maturity of one year, as made available by the Federal Reserve Board in the latest Federal Reserve Statistical Release H.15(519) ("Index Source") published on or before the 45th day prior to such Interest Change Date. If the Index or Index Source is no longer available, Lender will choose a new index or index source which it determines in its sole discretion is comparable.

3. Section 1.5 of the Contract is hereby amended in its entirety by substitution of the following:

Section 1.5: Late Payments: All payments not made when due under this Contract shall thereafter bear interest until paid at a default rate which shall be equal to the rate then in effect for this Contract, plus four percent (4%) per annum.

4. Except as expressly modified or changed herein, all terms and conditions of the Contract and related documents shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be changed hereunder.

5. It is the intention of the parties that this Amendment shall not constitute a novation and shall in no way adversely affect or impair the priority of the Contract. The parties declare and agree that the Contract and each documents evidencing, and securing the repayment of the above-referenced Contract shall remain in effect and are valid, binding, and enforceable according to their terms, except as modified by this Amendment. Time is of the essence. This Amendment shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the Purchaser and Seller.

In Witness Whereof, the parties hereto have duly executed this Amendment to be effective as of the day and year first above written.

Dear Trish:

Enclosed please find a form for a Notice of Water Right Change in Ownership, an aerial photograph from the FSA Office, exhibits marked 1-6, as well as a Title Insurance policy. I'm afraid this is another one of those complicated ones that will only make you dread to hear the name "Molyneux" again. I have tried to document it here to make it as clear as possible.

Your records show the ownership of this water right under the name of Northwest Farm Credit Services, FLCA, and it involves water rights A37-00263D, A37-00015D, and A37-01219.

In the year 1989, as shown by exhibit marked #1, Farm Credit entered into a Real Estate Contract with John, Kristy, Clyde, C.E., and Ingeborg Molyneux. The Molyneuxs would not receive title to the property until it was paid in full. Clyde Molyneux is listed on this Contract as a single man. He was married to a woman named Gail, however, who became a player because of her community property interest.

While they were married, the Molyneuxs decided to form Molyneux Brother's Partnership in 1991. In order for this to happen, all the current owners, Gail included, signed a Quitclaim deed (marked exhibit #2), granting their individual interest to the Partnership. At this time, another Molyneux brother, William, never previously mentioned on the property, became a one-quarter owner of the Molyneux Brother's Partnership according to Blaine County records. Farm Credit, however, only would acknowledge the original "purchasers" on their contract.

Clyde and Gail were then divorced, and, to erase any confusion in the matter, Gail deeded her community interest in the property to Clyde in 1993. This was documented by Farm Credit in an amendment to the real estate contract (marked exhibit #3). This Amendment was not dated and executed by Farm Credit until Nov. 1, 1999.

In March of 1999, with a Special Warranty Deed, Farm Credit deeded the property to John, Kristy, Clyde, Gail, C.E., and Ingeborg Molyneux (marked exhibit #4). I believe Farm Credit did not execute the Amendment to the Real Estate Contract (exhibit #3) until November, because they did not know Clyde had divorced.

In the meanwhile, Clyde had not only divorced Gail, but had remarried a woman named Teresa, and, Molyneux Brothers Partnership had decided to dissolve. This was accomplished with yet another quitclaim deed (marked exhibit #5), which transferred the interests in the property now from Molyneux Brother's Partnership to William, Clyde, Teresa, John, Kristy, C.E., and Ingeborg.

Now that Farm Credit, with the Special Warranty Deed (exhibit #4), and with the Amendment to Real Estate Contract (exhibit #3) had washed their hands of the property, and Molyneux Brother's Partnership no longer existed, the property now belonged to William, a single man, Clyde and now Teresa, husband and wife, John and Kristy, husband and wife, and C.E. and Ingeborg, husband and wife. Things were getting more simple.

On February 20, 2001, Clyde and Teresa sold their interest in the property to William, an unmarried man, John and Kristy, husband and wife, and C.E. and Ingeborg, husband and wife. This was accomplished with the Warranty Deed marked exhibit #6. I have also included the Policy of Title Insurance to show you that the Title Company (also very confused for awhile) is now confident that the property is in the correct ownership and are willing to back that with an insurance policy.

I know this is extremely confusing, and I apologize. I was unable to apply for this transfer of ownership until Farm Credit released ownership, Molyneux Brother's Partnership released ownership, and Clyde and his many wives released ownership. I hope you can sort through it all. I do have some other documents to back up more of these transactions, but I will keep them unless you request them, because they may tend to further complicate the issue. Believe it or not, I have actually tried to keep this as simple as possible. Please don't hesitate to call me if you need to at 823-4573.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,
