13. Remarks: See Attachments 1 and 2 for place of use and point of diversion. The land associated with the diversion and a portion of the land where the water is used was purchased from the Estate of Harold Paisley in 1993. Subsequent to that acquisition, but prior to January 1, 2006 the place of use for a portion of that water right was changed from the original permitted place of use. No other water rights were injured on the property through that transfer since the point of diversion remained under the control of the applicant and no others were diverting any of the water for use on property not owned by the applicant. Copy of deed is attached as Attachment 3.
