Dave,

I can remember your pumphouse being there in 1958 when I first moved here and it had obviously been there for some time before that, because it was a pretty run down little building at the time. I can remember it because it was kind of at the bottom of our old sleigh riding hill and we used to use it to hide behind for our snowball fights. And I seem to remember getting into trouble when we would hide inside and forget to shut the door when we left, letting the pipes freeze.

I hope this helps you some in your documentation of the well and I am sure Carol Spuler across the street will remember it as well.
