RE: Owner change 37-12786

Dear Ms Wilson,

Enclosed is the ownership change form I indicated that I would send to you. I have also included a printout of the water right. To properly change the record into your name we will need evidence of ownership. We are looking for documents that link your late husband's name to the property and that conveyed the property to you. For example, a probate order with a disposition of real property, or a personal representative's deed of conveyance. Was something filed with the county to change the tax assessment notice? That filing may work as well.

Because the water right has been decreed the ownership change has a fee associated with it, as described in the accompanying instructions. Please return the form, fee and documentation at your convenience. If you have questions about the process give this office a call.

Sincerely,

Douglas Jones, PE

RE: Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA)
Notice of Claim to a Water Right - Blaine County

Dear Ms. Hoerni:

We have only now been able to review the claims which have been filed by you and the Hanawalts. I apologize for the delay; however, as more claims have been received, we have been fallen somewhat behind in the backlog. As I review the background as to what as occurred, it appears that the Hanawalts have filed a separate claim for their domestic use from the well.

As such, your claim can now be modified to show your single domestic use. In order to clarify your claim, please modify the enclosed claim in order to have the claim more clearly describe your water right:

- a. Item 1: delete (by lining through) the Hanawalt name and address;
- b. Item 3: The correct source, based on the information shown in the diversion works is "Groundwater". Line through both Big Wood River and Snake River, and list source as Groundwater;
- c. Item 6 and 7: You may wish to modify the amounts listed;
- d. Item 9: Modify to show "One (1) household.

If these modifications are made, the claim will more clearly define your water right; however, please be sure that the modifications meet with your approval. Please initial next to each modification.
