I. INTRODUCTION

This response brief serves to identify pertinent information in support of the McInturff's claim of ownership of water right 91-7094.

II. DISCUSSION

While there is not specifically a paper trail detailing the transition from St. Maries Wild Rice Growers to St. Maries Wild Rice Inc., one constant endures: Al Bruner. Bruner was the owner/operator/founder of St. Maries Wild Rice Growers which then morphed into St. Maries Wild Rice Inc. Bruner's name, address, and personal information remain present throughout the chain of ownership of this water right. As such, it is reasonable to conclude that Bruner was well within his rights to then sell said water right to McInturff.

III. CONCLUSION

In conclusion, these water rights clearly do not belong to Jeff Shippy. He is merely the owner of the current point of diversion. Nowhere in the chain of ownership does Shippy's name appear.
