To whom it may concern:

I, David Graser, attest to the fact that the property currently owned by Michael L Davies and Janice D'Aloia has had a pump drawing water from Lake Coeur d'Alene for irrigation purposes since before 1963. I lived at the property starting in 1964. In addition, the property had a well drilled to provide domestic water around 1974. My father, Harry Graser, owned the property from 1963 to 1991 when the property was sold to John Schreiner. In 2002, the property was sold to Michael L Davies and Janice D'Aloia.
