Plaintiffs,

-vs-

Lynn Crandall, Watermaster,
District 36, Idaho,

Defendant

J U D G M E N T

This cause coming on to be heard and tried by the Court this 24th day of January, 1938, F. A. Miller of St. Anthony, Idaho appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant was served with a copy of the Summons and a copy of the Complaint in this action, and that he failed to appear and plead to said Complaint, and that the default of the said defendant has been entered, and, -

It further appearing that an order was made on the 23rd day of November, 1937, directing the publication of a Notice, once a week for not less than three weeks consecutively, in the Teton Valley News, a weekly newspaper published at Driggs, Teton County, Idaho, containing the title of the Court and Cause, the name of the streams in the waters of which the plaintiff's claim an interest, the date of priority claimed by them, as is required, and the date and short title of the decree of this court heretofore entered, fixing the permanent rights in and to the waters of Snake River and its tributaries: that the said notice was published in accordance with said order and the proof of publication has been filed in this action; that no person or persons have appeared to defend against said action.

The plaintiffs introduced oral and documentary proof in support of each of the claims set out in their complaint, and the Court, after hearing the evidence and examining the proof submitted, finds as follows:

I

That Miller & Viele is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Utah, and has complied with the laws of the State of Idaho, entitling it to do business within said State.

II.

That The Prudential Insurance Company of America is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New Jersey, and has complied with the laws of the State of Idaho, entitling it to do business within said State.

III.

That First Security Bank of Utah is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Utah, and has complied with the laws of the State of Idaho, entitling it to do business within said State.

IV.

That all of the streams named and mentioned in plaintiffs' complaint are tributaries of Teton River, which said river is a tributary of Snake River.

V.

That all of the lands of plaintiffs hereinafter described are situate in Teton County, Idaho, are arid in character, and require artificial irrigation to produce agricultural crops.

VI.

22-0080 That the plaintiffs, Robert L. Griggs, Alfred Durtschi, John Durtschi, Elizabeth Durtschi and Miller & Viele, a corporation, are the owners of, or have an estate in, the following described lands, to-wit:
