This Attachment Covers the following Water Right numbers 260A, 265B, 278, 2242, 4052D, 12338 and these are all a part of 12338, 247, 253, 267, 268, 269, 270, and 271. All of these water rights come from the same source, Rush Creek. The Diversion Point is # A0014016 which is the Ridenour Ditch and the other is an Artesian Well #A0016800 that dump into a pond about 200 feet due east of the Artesian well. It has a pump house with a 3 HP pump that runs 14 sprinklers that irrigates part of the 5 acres and the 20 acre section that is above the pond which is a total of 25 acres that can't be flood irrigated.

Now for the rest of the story.

Why are all of these water rights grouped together? One person created this mess Robert Bumgardner. The Ridenour at one time split before it reached the Zundels and came in below the Zundels and around the side of the hill above the Zundels. The Ditch below the Zundels irrigated everything on the west side of Cemetery Rd and crossed the road to the lower section of the Thorsen-Pearson property. This ditch irrigated the Zundels, the Wilsons, _____ (Who's last name I don't know), then comes the Filers, and the Chandlers. Only the Zundels and the Chandlers have water rights today. That ditch was done away with. When Ethel Pearson turned Bumgardner in for doing away with her ditch. At that time Robert owned all of the above property. She was asked if she could get water through the upper ditch. When she said yes but she wouldn't be able to get water to the lower section she was told to just extend her ditches and do the best she could. Robert got away with it again, he didn't have to replace her ditches.

The Water for all the Thorsen-Pearson water rights come around the Ridenour ditch and crosses the road at the old Warren place and irrigates his field. It then passed his place and splits and runs over the hill to the Pattee place you can see the split on map 67-2242. It comes down and picks up part of the old ditch that crosses the Thorsen-Pearson property and crosses the Cutler Road into part of the lower section of the 144 acres. The part that is next to Cemetery Road on map 67-278 SW NW does not get much water. The largest part of the water goes through the McLaughlin property down a ditch between the McLaughlin and Thorsen-Pearson property , then the Dopf property crossing the road and running into the same pond the Artesian well feeds. From that pond they irrigate all the land below the pond and as far as it will reach with flood irrigation. The pump in the pump house irrigates the 25 acres above the pond. Because of the ditch system and other people stealing water only in the spring can they get enough water to irrigate the whole 144 acres and the 25 above the pond. My understanding is that Robert was burning brush and cleaning his ditch and the fire got away from him and burned up the Ridenour head gate which was wood in a concrete diversion and the trees that held the concrete diversion in place. With our winter storms the corner where the trees were is already wash out. For the Ridenour ditch to get water in the spring the whole section of the creek will have to be replaced to create a diversion.
