To Whom It May Concern:

Scott Campbell of the law firm Moffatt Thomas represented Sun Valley Company on all of its water rights matters for many years. Mr. Campbell recently retired. Sun Valley Company has engaged Chris Bromley of McHugh Bromley as its counsel for water rights matters.

Please contact me if you have any questions or need further information.

Sincerely,

Scott Mayeda

Diana,

Attached is a letter from Sun Valley Company's corporate counsel, Scott Mayeda, stating that Scott Campbell has retired and that I'm engaged for all matters. Here are the water right numbers that this covers: 37-415, 37-416, 37-2678, 37-2710, 37-4108, 37-7170, 37-7340, 37-8575A, 37-8798, 37-12111, 37-22105, 37-22016, 37-8885, and 45-7657. If you could please see that my name is substituted for Scott Campbell's in the SRBA files for these water rights, I'd very much appreciate it.

In terms of the administrative appeals, there are a few that Scott Campbell appeared in for Sun Valley, but they've all been closed, so I don't think I need to do anything in terms of them.

Thanks,

Chris

That would work. It will be especially helpful to have you identified the water right matters, or the administrative appeal matters if any.

Diana,

I was recently engaged by Sun Valley Company to represent it on all of its water right matters. Scott Campbell was the prior attorney and has retired. What would be the easiest thing for me to do to get my name associated with your Sun Valley Company files? What I'd like to do is send a letter explaining what's happened, and listing the Sun Valley Company water right numbers. I can also include a letter from the client stating that Scott's retired and that I'm now the attorney of record. Would that work?

Thanks!

Chris
