Memorandum

Aug 5, 1981 Mr & Mrs Glen Wilcott Contact with Mrs. Glen "Bess" Wilcott and his wife, Mrs. Mabel (Fisk) Wilcott at their home on Hudlow Road.
The alpine meadow property (farm) was purchased by her father in 1907 Her family was originally from Kanger, Wisconsin. Father was William Fisk Their original house was located on East side of lake in the meadow near what is now called Grand View and Pineview Way. House burned in 1948 and they moved to the present location on Hudlow.

after buying the property in 1907 father raised a good Indian moccasins factory. They worked 30-40 days to have the flocks and moccasins. Their crops were wheat, oats, hay which they sold to the local dairy farmers. Also, horses and cattle. Property was fenced around to what is now the God place and present place. A corral was in place at the south end of the Palato Patch (now lots 9, 10, and 11) the south water ditch and springs. (Crazy 1900's) Horses were used in logging and they were hard short times. Horses were short near working time.
A small saw mill was at the top of the knoll (lot 9) for a short time Saw dust was spread with a scoop. on the flat area near the outfield

Aug. 1911. Mr. J. H. Wilcott, Mabel J. Wilcott, Conditioⁿ was improved with additional drainage ditching, cleaning, the put pump out about a dozen down and installing a larger Gas Shaver (?) pump from 1913. They were then able to plant oats and sell them to manufacturers for seed oats. They harvested 125 bushels per acre.

When asked if her father had installed the pipe in the spring at the trough, Mrs. Wilcott did not know if her father or anyone else had installed it but it was installed "early on" and that her father and the "neighbor" from across the way "put it in" and "twist" in it to clean the fine sand out so that the water would flow.
 A small logging camp was built on the hill top, during the early days of the logging.
 They got down to the bottom and then up to the top. Mrs. Wilcott noted that when they were on the west side of the hill the side was bad because of the frequent lightning strikes.

Memorandum

August 5, 1981 Ms. Lucille Ragle

Lucille stated that she had resided in Spartanburg, since 1971. First at the Red house on the hill on Grand Avenue and then at her present location 607 E. on Ridgeway.

Lucille stated that she picked mushrooms on my tract and to the south each spring and fall and ^{she} worked in the woods scouting for birds and game tracks for hunting in the fall.
She said that she would sometimes see a "hippie" who was camped about 1000-1200 feet south of the Spartanburg but never spoke with him as he would disappear when she was spotted. He would stay from late spring until about September; had a tarp for shelter, hidden in thick brush. When asked where he got his food she said "from the rusty pipe that flowed or trickled down the ditch towards the Burton's house".
She thought "he would take a bath in the lake as she would cross a worn trail to each place and a third trail lead to the log trail past the wire fence south."
