Hi Craig-

I have attached your picture with a red star indicating where the well is located on the property. Please let me know if this will work.

Thanks!

Brenda

Hello Brenda,

IDWR received notice that you filed your affidavit of publication. We will be preparing the Notice of Examination which we will send to you and the court. This will give you a time line of when IDWR will submit their Director's Report (recommendation), and the examination cost.

In the meantime, I was wondering if you could locate your well on the map or send me GPS coordinates of the location (any format is good).

This is a google earth map dated 2011 which is about the clearest I have seen. You could use something like this and just draw the location on the map and e-mail it to me.

Thanks.
