Comments:

1. mcase 7/6/2004 POD

Comment: POD shape created using claim map. Comment in claim file about change in canal system.

2. mcase 7/6/2004 Quantity

Comment: Flow verified for claimed acreage, but there are 3 claims of this right - two claiming the total right and one claiming a partial right. The taxlot information matched this claimant.

3. csaxton 10/26/2006 POD

Comment: This right was originally decreed from the Anderson-Lindsay-Linder-Correll ditch in which the POD was located in Section 1, 13N, R1E. When C Ben Ross was constructed, the POD changed and the reservoir canal system commenced being used.

From: Monica Van Bussum

RE: Phone conversation with Greg Coriell today at 1:30 pm

Greg Coriell called today and said Valerie had sold her share of the property to him and Mark. Greg also said he and Mark have a court date later this month to sell the remainder of their share of the property to Dale and Wanna Belle. Just to double up on evidence, I asked Greg to send in a copy of any court documents they receive after the settlement of the property.

RE: Phone conversation with Wanna Belle Coriell today at 9:30 am

SRBA claims 67-410, 67-444, 67-4552, 67-10060, 67-10061, 67-10062, 67-10067, 67-10081, and 67-10082

I sent a note to the claimants of these files about their apparent ownership dispute on 08/05. The note simply asked them to clarify ownership with a deed or similar paperwork.

I received a phone call this morning from Wanna Belle Coriell in regards to the letter. Apparently, this is a complicated family situation and the ownership dispute has been in litigation since the early 1980s.

While the letter I sent was specifically about 4552 (I hadn't found the other disputed files yet), we discussed the above-listed files in general.

In regards to 4552, Wanna Belle was worried about the priority date. The priority date claimed is 1930. Wanna Belle says any files she filled out for them individually she put an 1880s priority date on and anything from the 1930s should be Little Weiser Irrigation or Indian Valley Reservoir. She read me something from the Little Weiser Irrigation District about the Wanna Belle/Dale's specific water from the District dated 1935. We were unsure if this was proof that 4552 should be included in Little Weiser's claim. After speaking with Craig, we have decided to wait until Dave and Anita are done with the irrigation companies before pursuing this issue. Wanna Belle was quite insistent that she has all the tax information and proof they've paid taxes on the Weiser Irrigation water and the other claimants (Coriell/Coriell/Champion) have paid no taxes on the land or water.

As far as the property ownership itself, Wanna Belle says she and Dale own 2/3 of it at this point and Valerie Champion sold her portion in the late summer/fall of last year. We do not know if Valerie sold her portion to Greg/Mark or to an as-yet-unnamed third party. Valerie also apparently no longer resides at the address we have for her in Rigby and, according to Wanna Belle, Valerie no longer wants contact with the two Coriells she's listed with on the claim (Greg/Mark). Valerie apparently now lives in Adams County.

At this point, Wanna Belle reiterated the "boys" (presumably Greg and Mark) have not paid taxes or water rights for over 20 years. Dale's brother, Tom, was the original owner of the "undivided interest" and, when he died, his wife Colleen (presumably the Elsie Colleen mentioned in other claims) probably filed the disputing claims. This would make Greg and Mark Dale's nephews.

Wanna Belle said they have a court date on the 18th of this month for the final settlement of the dispute. I asked if she could, at that time, send me the paperwork regarding settlement of the dispute along with any resulting warranty deeds showing ownership of the property. She did make a point in the conversation to say the water belongs to the lands, not the individual, to which I replied that is true, but to make a recommendation in a case where I have two claimants claiming the same land, I need a deed to establish ownership of the property and thus the water right.

At the end of the conversation, Wanna Belle was in good spirits and promised to send any paperwork she had this way for clarification of property ownership.

So, at this point, it seems we are just waiting on further communication from Wanna Belle about the settlement of the ownership dispute before we can move on to field exams and recommendations. Once ownership is cleared up, we should be able to proceed. I did explain to Wanna Belle that she will probably be getting more documentation from me/us as we get the gears moving for the Weiser basin. I had evidence of priority specifically in mind since I'll be sending those letters soon.
