Attention:

Dave and Joyce Richards bought the property on Richards Road (just a Route back then) in 1954. In 1955 they began farming it for different crops, including wheat, oats and other seed crops. These were irrigated from the Spokane River. These proved difficult to pursue, so Grass crops were switched to, including pasture grasses and Timothy. These seemed to do much better, and were irrigated from the Spokane River. Dave and Joyce eventually settled on Christmas trees and pasture as the best use of the land. These, again, were irrigated from the Spokane River. That pump still exists in that part of the property.

Cornelius Mealey and Greg Richards acquired the property in 1994 and have continued the tree and pasture use of the land, irrigating from the Spokane River.

Greg Richards
