This is land and water that was homesteaded by my Grandmother. She Resided There - had milk cows and pigs. After her death my Uncle resided at the house. As a child I remember play and the well was being used at that time it was an artesian the reason I can remember it because it ran over all of the time. Later in about 1960 or so my Uncle had someone come in and modernize so it did not run over all the time. It has been continued using for stock water and domestic use.
