9-23-08 Status Conference – 63-2249A, B, C, 3080, 3088, 21520 & 21

Jan Shurte

Wilder and Riverside both objected to these claims. Settled the objections and now waiting for an NCAP to be filed after change of ownership submitted. Paul Arrington and Mr. Redmon will be discussing the settlement. Next Status Conference set for 10:30 am on 11-7-08.

11-5-08 – Status Conference

Change of ownership has been hard to do. Neary's land paid off, but others in the name of Mills or Coleman is under contract (carrying papers) so my question is do we wait to do the SF5s until after a change of ownership comes in or can we do them now and then change the ownership when it does come in. Special Master Booth decided to give them more time and sent the next status conference on 2-3-09 at 2P:30. Renea assigned to get in touch with the claimants and have them file a change of ownership.

RE: Address and Ownership

Date: June 17, 2008

While preparing for initial hearings on these recommendations it was noted that none of our correspondence had been received by the claimants. In review of Canyon County tax lot information in arc view we found the current owner to be: Hillview Farms Trust, P.O. Box 202, Greenleaf, ID 83626. I discussed this with our attorneys and asked if I should try to contact the owners and notify them of the initial hearings coming up this week and they agreed that I should try to contact if I could.

I searched "Dex" and could not find anything for Bryan Mills or Delynn Coleman or Joseph Neary in the area. I searched for John Redmon and found a John Redmon at 21988 Tucker Road in Greenleaf. It happened to have the same phone number as shown on Mr. Redmon's claims so I called 459-6067 and happened to catch him at home.

Mr. Redmon stated he was "Hillview Farms Trust" and we discussed the recommendations and objections and initial hearings for the above claim files. I scanned and e-mailed copies of these documents to Mr. Redmon at: jgrsr@msn.com He also gave me his cell number (573-1881) and his fax (454-8362) in case I could not reach him at his home phone number. Mr. Redmon stated he would attend the initial hearings to be held on Thursday, June 19th.
