Re: Snake River Basin Adjudication Water Right Claim A25-04065

Dear Water Users:

Yesterday I met with Mr. Purcell and looked at the well and the irrigated place of use. Idaho Department of Water Resources had asked me to do this to aid them in making Adjudication recommendations to the court. Mr. Purcell and I reviewed some of the water-rights issues with this claim. This letter is to summarize these and outline some things you may wish to do.

Water Right Background

Under Idaho water law, any single-home domestic user may have a ground-water right for household use, livestock, and lawn and garden irrigation. The maximum limit is one-half acre of irrigation and 13,000 gallons per day total water use. This water right may be recorded with the state but it does not need to be.

Up until March 25, 1963, a larger water right could also be developed from ground water without filing a permit. While these water rights were valid, no record of them ever existed. Since 1963 a water right permit has been required, but this fact was never advertised nor really even enforced.

In the early 1980's the state made available a process for users who had developed a larger water right before March 25, 1963 to record these with a "beneficial use claim." This was an optional program. Your predecessors Jim Solecki and Harry Messenger filed claim 25-4065 in 1980, representing that your water right had been developed in 1962. The state never investigated any of these 1980's claims, which are called "statutory claims," "beneficial use claims," "243 claims," or "4000 claims." Because these were accepted without any investigation, the state does not acknowledge these as proof of a water right.

In 1987 the state started the Snake River Basin Adjudication. This was a mandatory program and all water users¹ were required to file. In 1989 James Solecki and Don Purcell signed claim A25-04065 for your water right. The state is in the process of investigating these claims and contracted with me to look at your water right. Next spring, the state will make a recommendation to the court based on my field investigation and office review by IDWR personnel.

About 1989 or 1990, the state imposed a moratorium on all new water rights from ground water. This is still in effect. Because the mandatory permit requirement of 1963 was never well-known, in some cases the state has allowed users who can document that their water use was in place before the adjudication (1987) but after 1963 to file for a permit based on a "moratorium exemption" for "pre-moratorium development." This is sometimes difficult; the state seems to have a higher standard of documentation of this development than the standard of "reasonableness" applied to adjudication claims.

Field Inspection

Mr. Purcell showed me the irrigated place of use, and based on a quick sketch and stepping off some dimensions I calculate that the Purcells are irrigating about 0.7 acre and the Herbsts are irrigating about 1.1 acre.

Options

Your best opportunity is to document that your water right was developed prior to March 25, 1963. This will be difficult because the evidence you present will have to overcome the affidavit in the file from Mr. Bybee and Mrs. Solecki indicating one home was built in 1965 and the other in 1967. I suggested to Mr. Purcell that the county may still have a record of the building permits, or the tax appraisal that added the homes to the tax assessment.

Another opportunity that I would suggest is for one of you to file a small domestic adjudication claim for the minimum household/livestock/one-half acre irrigation water right. If you do that, I will propose to IDWR that if you don't find documentation of pre-1963 development, they still recommend A25-04065 as a small domestic for the other claimant. They can only recommend one-half acre of irrigation without the documentation. By filing a second claim, you may each have one-half acre, instead of sharing it. Whether you follow this suggestion or not, you each do have a water right for the home and half acre of irrigation. Filing just gets the right documented and recorded. I gave Mr. Purcell a copy of the form for this claim.

If you cannot come up with documentation of pre-1963 development, your best option is to file for a new permit based on pre-moratorium development. I also gave Mr. Purcell a copy of this form.

In my mind the affidavit and well-use agreement in the file adequately document the pre-moratorium development, but the state's standard may be higher. However, the state needs to understand that part of the reason for your current difficulty is their lack of assistance. Had the 1963 permit statute been well advertised, your predecessors would have gotten a permit. In 1980, when your predecessors filed beneficial use claim 25-4065, they could have filed for a permit if IDWR had given them appropriate guidance. When you filed your adjudication claim in 1989, the moratorium may not yet have been in place, and with proper guidance you may have had an opportunity then to apply for a permit. In 1991, when the affidavit was submitted to IDWR indicating 1965 development, IDWR again had an opportunity to provide help and guidance. Finally, Mr. Purcell told me that you attended a recent meeting and asked specifically about the condition of your water right and were basically told "not to worry." Because IDWR has missed numerous opportunities to help you resolve these questions, I would hope that now they would be receptive to accepting the documentation in the adjudication file as evidence of pre-moratorium development.

As a last resort, you may purchase a ground water right from another user and file a transfer to move it to your land. This will be more difficult and costly than the other options. You may also want to investigate ways to irrigate your lawns by purchasing canal shares and a ditch pump.

Second Well

Mr. Purcell asked about the possibility of drilling a second well, so that you may each have your own well. This is an easier question. A licensed driller can get a permit to drill a single-home domestic well without any water right considerations. If your adjudication claim is successful, you may file a transfer to add a second well, or "point of diversion," to that water right. If you have to apply for a permit, you may apply for a second well as part of the permit application. You may also submit the permit application for the current single-well condition, then later file a transfer to add a point of diversion to the water right.

Dear Water User:

Idaho Department of Water Resources (IDWR) is reviewing claims to water rights in the Snake River Basin Adjudication in your area. Water Resources Field Services has been retained to do field inspections to aid the Department in making correct recommendations to the court. In the next weeks and months I will be contacting you to make an appointment to look at your diversion works and uses of water.

This is a follow-up to an inspection made by Intrepid Technology & Resources, Inc, in 2002. A letter similar to this one is being sent to co-claimant Don Purcell.

I look forward to helping make sure your water right recommendation is correct. Please contact me if there is a particular time that would be convenient for you. You may call in the evenings, or leave a message on the answering machine.

Memo to File: The following letter date November 6, 2002, was sent out to the claimants and no response was received back to Intrepid.

November 6, 2002

Dear Sir or Madam:

Intrepid Technology and Resources, Inc. (ITR) has been contracted by the Idaho Department of Water Resources (IDWR) to verify information in the State's records regarding the enclosed claim(s). This letter is being sent to the address of record for the enclosed claim(s).

In June or July of 2002, ITR employees visited the point(s) of diversion for the claim(s) in question. The purpose of this letter is to follow up on that visit, and ask for your input to verify the boundary of the area irrigated by each point of diversion. IDWR has supplied the enclosed maps and/or aerial photographs. The points of diversion (wellheads, dams, etc.) are indicated as circles. The irrigated areas are traced with bright yellow lines.

Please take the time to review the map, and correct any inaccuracies by marking changes on the map, and sending the map and claim file back to us in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

If the claim is no longer in use, please note it on the claim file and return it to us in the enclosed envelope.

This applies only to the enclosed claim file. Water rights or claims not included with this package will be dealt with separately. Please DO NOT mark wells, diversions, or irrigated areas not specifically addressed in this package.

If you have any questions about the letter itself or how to respond, please call Doug Larsen or myself at 208-529-5337. We will be happy to discuss it with you.

Sincerely,

Shaun Dustin, PE

RE: Evidence of Priority

Dear Mr. Solecki:

The Notice of Claim identified with the number shown at the end of this letter has been filed in the Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA). The Notice indicates the water usage is based on "Beneficial Use" or a "Statutory Claim". Water rights of this type are established by the historical use of water, dating back to when water was first used for the purpose claimed, at or on the place of use identified on the Notice. The date the water was first put to use, known as the priority date, has not been confirmed by a License, Decree, or Permit. For this reason, proof must be provided supporting the priority date.

For your reference I have provided a printout of your Notice and the pamphlet entitled "Evidence of Priority". The pamphlet describes the types of evidence required and suggests which documents will fulfill this requirement. While I encourage you to read all of the pamphlet, I direct your attention to the two sections entitled "What Kind of Evidence is Required" and "Some Examples of Documents Which May Be Evidence of the Priority Date".

It is our goal to recommend this historical water rights within the Snake River Basin as accurately as possible. Field exams to verify other items of the Notice have been or soon will be conducted by Department personnel. But, the Department will not recommend the Notice be decreed by the court if no evidence of a priority date is submitted.

Please submit the required evidence supporting the priority date by June 6, 1991, referencing all documents with the corresponding Notice number. If you have any questions not covered by this letter or the enclosed pamphlet, please contact this office.
