DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY
Under Idaho Code § 15-5-501

AUDREY JOAN MERRILL

KNOW ALL PERSONS by these presents, that I, AUDREY JOAN MERRILL, the undersigned, of Garfield WA, do hereby make, constitute, and appoint JACK MARTIN MERRILL, 1015 E. Mt. Home Road, Potlatch ID 83855 (208/875-0321), as my true and lawful agent for me and in my name, place, and stead and on my behalf and for my use and benefit in order to exercise the following powers.

If Jack is not available or becomes ineligible to act as my agent, or loses the mental capacity to make decisions for me, or if I revoke his appointment or authority to act as my agent, then I designate and appoint JOE HARDY MERRILL, 505 E. Bluff, Palouse WA 99161 (509/875-1382) to serve as my agent. If Joe is not available or becomes ineligible to act as my agent, or loses the mental capacity to make decisions for me, or if I revoke his appointment or authority to act as my agent, then I designate and appoint TREVA MERRILL BEEBE, 1035 Mt. Home Road, Potlatch ID 83855 (208/875-0287) to serve as my agent.

This is a "Durable" Power of Attorney as that term is defined in Section 15-5-501, Idaho Code. The power of attorney herein granted shall become effective upon the disability or incapacity of the principal, as defined in Idaho Code §15-5-101(a) and as determined by the principal's own personal physician, evidenced by a letter or an affidavit executed by the physician, and shall remain effective until death of principal or a change in the principal's capacity. Pursuant to the HIPAA release authority outlined below, I give to my agent the immediate power to request from my personal physician an assessment of my capacity and to receive said information, and I hereby give my permission to my physician to release that assessment to my agent, waiving any confidentiality claim which I might otherwise raise in regard to the release of that information. It is the specific intent of the principal that the authority conferred herein shall be exercisable notwithstanding the principal's subsequent disability or incapacity. All acts done by the attorney in fact during any period of disability or incapacity of the undersigned principal shall have the same effect and bind the principal and his successors in interest as if the principal were competent and not disabled.

1. General Powers: To exercise or perform any act, power, duty, right or obligation whatsoever that I now have, or may hereafter acquire the legal right, power, or capacity to exercise or perform in connection with, arising from or relating to any person, item, transaction, thing, business property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, or matter whatsoever;

I grant to said agent full power and authority to do, take and perform all and every act and thing whatsoever requisite, proper, or necessary to be done, in the exercise of any of the rights and powers herein granted, as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, with full power of substitution or revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that said agent, or that person's substitute or substitutes, shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of this power of attorney and the rights and powers herein granted.

2. Medical Powers. I hereby grant to my agent full power and authority to make health care decisions for me to the same extent that I could make such decisions for myself if I had the capacity to do so.

HIPAA Release Authority: My agent shall be treated as I would be with respect to my rights regarding the use and disclosure of my individually identifiable health information or other medical records. This release authority applies to any information governed by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), 42 U.S.C. 1320d and 45 CFR 160 through 164. I authorize any physician, health care professional, dentist, health plan, hospital, clinic, laboratory, pharmacy, or other covered health care provider, any insurance company, and the Medical Information Bureau, Inc. or other health care clearinghouse that has provided treatment or services to me, or that has paid for or is seeking payment from me for such services, to give, disclose, and release to my agent, without restriction, all of my individually identifiable health information and medical records regarding any past, present, or future medical or mental health condition, including all information relating to the diagnosis of HIV/AIDS, sexually transmitted diseases, mental illness, and drug or alcohol abuse. The authority given my agent shall supersede any other agreement that I may have made with my health care providers to restrict access to or disclosure of my individually identifiable health information. The authority given my agent has no expiration date and shall expire only in the event that I revoke the authority in writing and deliver it to my health care provider.

My agent has the power and authority to do all of the following:

- a. Authorize and consent to medical, dental and psychological health care and treatment of any kind or nature whatsoever as my attorney in fact deems necessary to maintain or improve my health or comfort, including minor or major surgery.
 - b. Request, review and receive any information, oral or written, regarding my physical or mental health including, but not limited to, medical and hospital records and execute on my behalf any release or other documents that may be required in order to obtain this information.
 - c. Consent to the disclosure of this information.
 - d. Execute on my behalf all of the following:
 - (1). Document titled or purporting to be a "Refusal to Permit Treatment" and "Leaving Hospital Against Medical Advice."
 - (2). Any necessary waiver or release from liability required by a hospital or physician.
 - (3). Any papers committing me to the care of a hospital or treatment facility for purposes of diagnosis and/or treatment.
3. Personal and Real Property Powers:
- a. To request, ask, demand, sue for, recover, collect, receive, and hold and possess all such sums of money, debts, dues, commercial paper, checks, drafts, accounts, deposits, legacies, bequests, devises, notes, interests, stock certificates, bonds, dividends, certificates of deposit, annuities, pension and retirement benefits, insurance benefits and proceeds, any and all documents of title, choses in action, personal and real property, intangible and tangible property and property rights, and demands whatsoever liquidated or unliquidated, as now are, or shall hereafter become, owned by, or due, owing, payable, or belonging to me or in which I have or may hereafter acquire interest, to have, use and take all lawful means and equitable and legal remedies, procedures, and writs in my name and for the collection and recovery thereof, and to adjust, sell, compromise, and agree for the same, and to make, execute, and deliver for me, on my behalf, and in my name, all endorsements, acquittances, releases, receipts, or other sufficient discharges for the same;
 - b. To lease, purchase, exchange, and acquire, and to agree, bargain, and contract for the lease, purchase, exchange, and acquisition of, and to accept, take, receive, and possess any real or personal property whatsoever, tangible or intangible, or interest thereon, on such terms and conditions, and under such covenants, as said agent shall deem proper;

- c. To maintain, repair, improve, manage, insure, rent, lease, sell, convey, subject to liens, mortgage, subject to deeds of trust and hypothecate, and in any way or manner deal with all or any part of any real or personal property whatsoever, tangible or intangible, or any interest therein, that I now own or may hereafter acquire, for me, in my behalf, and in my name and under such terms and conditions, and under such covenants, as said agent shall deem proper;
- d. To conduct, engage in, and transact any and all lawful business of whatever nature or kind for me, on my behalf, and in my name;
- e. To make, receive, sign, endorse, execute, acknowledge, deliver and possess such applications, contracts, agreements, options, covenants, conveyances, deeds, trust deeds, security agreements, bills of sale, leases, mortgages, assignments, insurance policies, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, documents of title, bills, bonds, debentures, checks, drafts, bills of exchange, letters of credit, notes, stock certificates, proxies, warrants, commercial paper, receipts, withdrawal receipts and deposit instruments relating to accounts or deposits in, or certificates of deposit or banks, savings and loan or other institutions or associations, proofs of loss, evidence of debts, releases, and satisfaction of mortgages, liens, judgments, security agreements and other debts and obligations and such other instruments in writing of whatever kind and nature as may be necessary or proper in the exercise of the rights and powers herein granted.
4. Safe Deposit Box: To have access at any time or times to any safe deposit box rented by me, wheresoever located, and to remove all or any part of the contents thereof, and to surrender or relinquish said safe deposit box; and any institution in which any such safe deposit box may be located shall not incur any liability to me or my estate as a result of permitting my agent to exercise this power.
5. Medicaid: I further specifically authorize said agent to execute on my behalf any documents that may be required to establish my eligibility for medical assistance under the Medicaid program or under any program that replaces or complements, in part or in whole, the Medicaid program, including the power to enter into a "Miller" or "Medigap" Trust in order that I can meet the income qualifications for any government programs including Medicaid.
6. Gifting: a) The power to gift to both charitable organizations and individuals where there exists a history of making or joining in the making of lifetime gifts. b) I specifically authorize the agent(s) appointed under this durable power of attorney, the right to exercise total withdrawal power, during my life, in a manner that reflects the ultimate distribution of my estate as provided by my Last Will and Testament or other testamentary documents. I do not prohibit such self-dealing, and do not consider it a breach of fiduciary duty, because my goal is to take advantage of all state and federal assistance programs, as allowed by state and federal law.
7. Effective Dates of Power: The rights, powers, and authority of said agent herein granted shall commence and be in full force and effect on the date below written, and such rights, powers, and authority shall remain in full force and effect thereafter until rescinded by the principal in writing, or upon the death of the principal.
8. Other Powers: With this provision, I provide every proper power necessary to carry out the purpose for which this power is granted, with full power of substitution and revocation, hereby ratifying and affirming that which my agent shall lawfully do or cause to be done by himself or herself by virtue of the power herein conferred.

9. Revoke Prior Powers: I hereby revoke any Powers of Attorney that I have previously signed.

10. Appointment of Conservator: In the event it becomes necessary to have a conservator appointed to control the assets of my estate, even though I have this power of attorney, I nominate the persons who are appointed as my Personal Representative in my Last Will and Testament in the priority that they have been appointed to be my conservator, and if I have no such Last Will and Testament in place, then the individuals I have listed in this power in order of priority as their names are listed.

11. Headings: The underlined paragraph headings are for convenience only and are not a part of this document and shall not be used in interpreting or construing this Durable Power of Attorney.
