Subject: Notice of Error reply.

Dear Don and Muriel:

Thank you for taking the time to reply on the notice of error on your SRBA claims. The lot number referred to in the legal description is for the government lots. The subdivision lots are different. I added an explanatory remark to each claim with the subdivision name and lot numbers. I hope this helps to clarify the confusion.

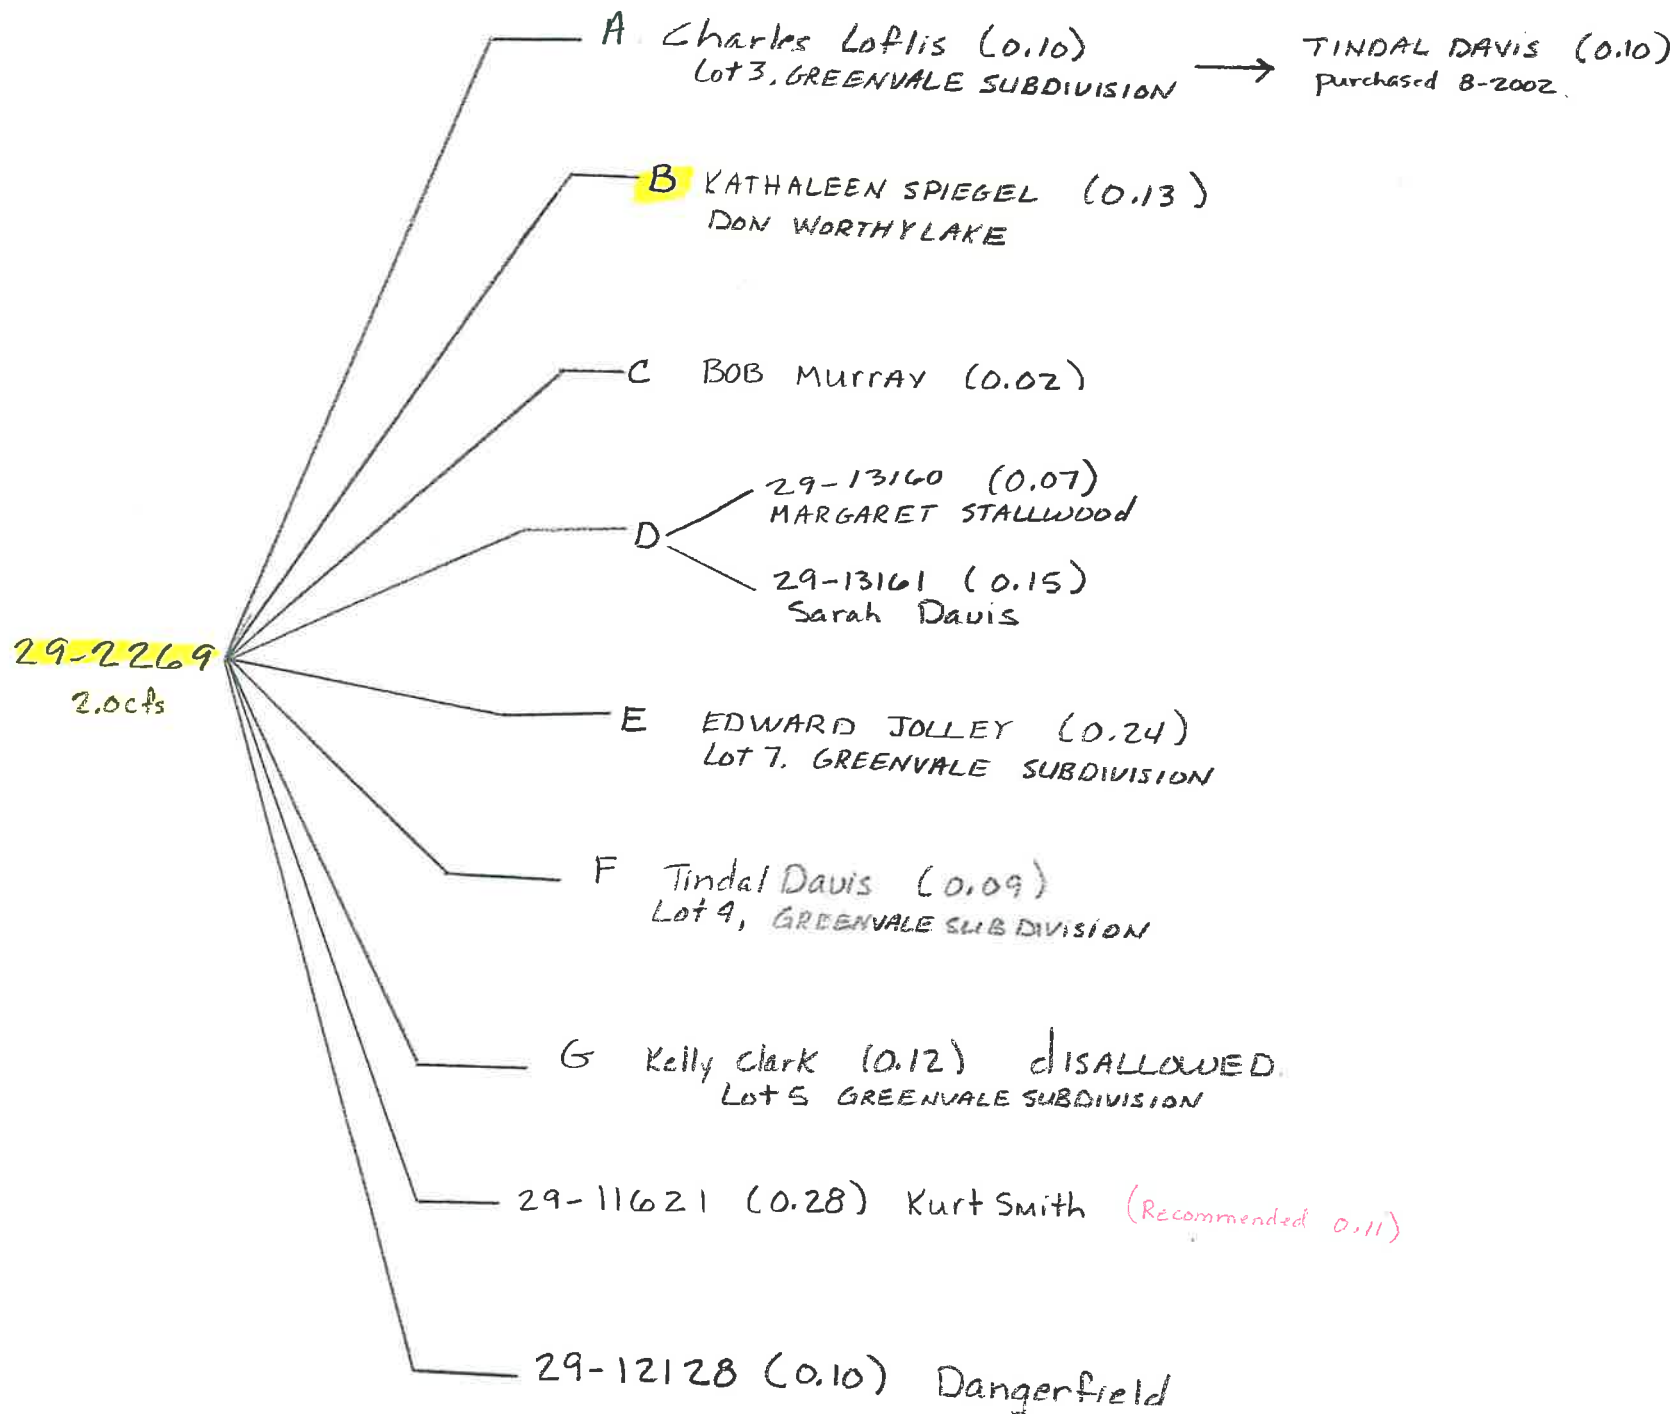

If you have any further questions please feel free to contact me at 547-3993.

Narrative by Cindy Bird

August 14, 2002 Don Worthylake and Kathleen Spiegel accompanied me on the field exam. Photo 1 was taken looking west at the place of use from the Marsh Creek diversion. The yellow-capped T-posts locate the riser on the mainline. Eleven risers are located throughout the pasture for irrigation.

Marsh Creek irrigates 6 acres in the bottom pasture. Below the house you can see a wooden fence, from that fence to the fence in the foreground of the photo is irrigated with Marsh Creek through the mainline. The rest of the property is flood irrigated with Cottonwood Creek water.

Marsh Creek is pumped with a gas portable 5 hp pump. Meyers, model Briggs & Stratton, serial number F 0439024. Don has an addition 3 hp Briggs & Stratton portable pump that he puts in the creek to irrigate plants along the creek banks. The portable gas pump of Don's model number is 5EB2PL E30.

GPS location is N42 degrees, 37.235 minutes and W112 degrees, 14.297 minutes.
