Subject: 29-07552 and 29-07628

Both Rights licensed April 11, 1984. I spoke with Geraldine on the phone on 7/2/01 and told her I needed a statement telling me the last time the entire pasture was irrigated using groundwater and Portneuf water. She said that she cut hay in the early 90's and I told her that I would accept that as evidence of irrigation. On July 10, 2001 I received a statement from Geraldine Grady stating she cut hay in 1990 and 1992.

Mr. Craig Saxton

Dear Mr. Saxton,

I have applied for a water license in Basin 29, the Portneuf River Drainage. My license number is 29-7552.

This land is the remainder of our family farm, after the Army Corps of Engineers straightened and rip-rapped the Portneuf in the 1960's. Part of it is land which belonged to my grandfather in the early 1900's. The rest, my father bought and farmed until his death.

In 1990, after irrigating, I cut and baled enough hay to give to my brother. During 1992, I cut and put up my hay loose. Currently, I use the land as irrigated horse pasture.

Sincerely,

Geraldine Grady
