Enclosing the history of water & land on the document #A29-10059, Copies of tax notice & page 2 of 1989 filing.

We made contact with Mr. Amos Lockyer in April 1947. He said he had lived there for 44 years. And dug a hand well close to their cabin, for culinary use. At this time, of our conversation, he was of very sound mind.
He said they dug the well & found the water probably flowing in from a spring. During the season of plenty of water, they let the excess run onto the land.

This 6.0 acres in this document is on the north side of the Jensen Rd, where the County road separated it from the rest of the land. Water is usually from 1 June to February. (thus making a priority date of 1 June 1903.)

We purchased the 40 acres 8 Sept 1960, with a new deed from their loan Co. As a result we never saw the original deed. It then was a foreclosure of Henry B. Lockyer, son of Amos. All now deceased.

On 21 Oct 1975 we sold the land on south side of Jensen Rd., retaining the 6.0 acres with continuous use water & land ownership.

On page 2 of 1989 filing is a note from your office - BUT I'm still sending this information & expect it also to be added in the file. Enclosing copy of page 2 & also of our 1st tax notice & map, & water report #A29-10059
