Subject: Notice of Error Reply

Dear Kevin,

Thank you for returning your notice of error replay on your Adjudication claim 29-11560. While at the public meeting on the 3rd of March 2003 you talked with Michael Ciscell and had him move the north boundary of your property line. Your property boundaries on the original map was created from Bannock Counties spatial tax lot information so if your property boundary is moved north it puts your property line in Mr. Guthrie's property.

If you think the information from the Bannock County is incorrect than you will need to contact the Bannock County Assessors office. The original shape that will be recommended to the SRBA court because it falls within your recorded property line.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me at 547-3993.

Sincerely;

Cindy E. Bird

The water on the lower end of the property is sub-irrigation from some springs that use to run for a longer period of time. Today, they only run in the early spring.

The RR grade has sunk and only about 8" is above ground now. They irrigate the land west of the RR grade by placing a dam in the slough and it backs up enough to flow over the RR grade.

Kevin said his neighbor put a dam in at the culvert and it created a pond on his property. So, he suggested to his neighbor that he only leaves the dam in for couple days at a time and no for long periods of time.

Using the 1987/88 NAPP PHOTOGRAPHY, RECOMMEND the 27 acres AS irrigated.

Subject: Irrigated acres.

RESPONSE DATE: NOVEMBER 6TH, 2002

Dear Kevin,

In reviewing your adjudication claim I have some additional questions on the irrigated place of use. When the contractor was out he noted that the slough is east of the railroad grade and was probably dug during construction of the grade to acts as a drain. As a result of that the water from the slough would irrigate only the property east of the grade. This would significantly reduction in the number of claimed irrigated acres to 3 acres. During the field exam you talked about the slough at the lower end "use to run". Did it flow prior to 1987? The Bannock County tax information breaks down the number of irrigated acres on your statement. Prior to 1987 how was the county billing you guys for the land? If the second ditch was dry prior to 1987 how was the water east of the railroad grade getting across the grade?

Your immediate attention to this matter is important. Please respond by the above response date. Our recommendation deadline is the end of the year. Without some additional input from you on this matter the recommended irrigated acres will be decrease to 3 acres.

Sincerely;

Cindy E. Bird

Cindy,

During a telephone conversation this morning with Shaun Dustin he indicated that the ditch and diversion on this claim are east of the railroad (RR) grade and from what he saw while getting a measurement the RR grade would act as a natural barrier to flood irrigation from the ditch. The ditch parallels the RR grade and likely was dug by the RR during construction of the grade to act as drain. I expect that sub water is the primary source of water. Unless you can determine how water from the ditch would get west of the RR grade I suggest limiting the irrigated acres to east of the RR. If you have other claims with diversions from this ditch take the same approach with the POU.

Here you go. I spoke w. Mr. Hall, and he let me on to the property. Sure was a nice day for a field investigation.

Diversion Description:

Full flow of unnamed stream tributary to Marsh Creek can be diverted at a 36" culvert approx. 100 yds North of the GPSID tag (GPSID A0012526, see photo). The high water mark in the culvert is at 21" from the top of the pipe. Hummocky, peaty pasture indicates that the high water table in the area probably contributes to the irrigation derived from the stream. As shown in photos, seepage through the ridge on the east side of the pasture also contributes water to the system; although no individual flowing springs were noted at the time of the investigation, it appears that the source of the water in the channel is primarily the result of the high water table in the area. Flow rates are probably directly related to availability of groundwater, and appear to vary considerably over the course of the irrigation season. The calculated flow rate is a theoretical ordinary maximum based on the high water mark in the culvert.

Calculated Flow Rate: 4.4 CFS

Assumptions: Full flow of unnamed stream is diverted for irrigation.
Channel slope is .0005 ft/ft. Manning's N=0.16

Dear Sirs:

In regard to my claim No. A29-11560, through my research I cannot document any permit given as such.

I filed this claim knowing all my life that my father dammed the slough off to perpetuate subbing when the meadow began to get dry, which was not often, but it did help the meadow grass in such a case. I first witnessed this as a child in 1930 or 1931 when accompanying my father.

My main reason in applying for this water right is my concern about the drought conditions and the seemingly unlimited issuing of permits for direct pumping from the Marsh Creek upriver from my meadow which is definitely a wet land. Most of these later rights are being used to irrigate bench land which has always been dry farm, (water spreading).

I feel it is only fair and just to keep the meadows as meadows and therefor, because of these new conditions as explained above, the right to this beneficial use is a necessity.

EVIDENCE OF PRIORITY

Dear Claimant:

The Notice of Claim identified above and or below has been filed in the Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA). The notice indicates a water usage of irrigation, or other commercial application that is based on BENEFICIAL USE. Water rights of this type are established by the historical use of water, dating back to when the water was first used for the purpose claimed. This date is known as the PRIORITY DATE, has not been confirmed by a license, Decree, or Permit. For this reason, proof must be provided supporting the priority date. As the claimant, you are responsible for submitting the necessary proof to support the PRIORITY DATE.

For your reference, I have provided a printout of your Notice of claim and the pamphlet EVIDENCE OF PRIORITY. The pamphlet suggests which documents will fulfill this requirement.

The IDWR can not recommend the notice be decreed by the court if no evidence of a priority date is submitted.

Please submit the documentation supporting the priority date by March 31, 1995, referencing the information with the corresponding Water right number. If you have any questions, please contact this office.
