Adams County Treasurer Encourages you to Search for Lost Money

CHRISTY ROACH, ADAMS COUNTY TREASURER, 208-253-4123 / CHRISTY.ROACH@CO.ADAMS.ID.US Idaho's Unclaimed Property Division (UCP), a division of the Idaho State Treasurer's Office, received over $15 million in unclaimed property

"property" conjure visions of land, homes, and other tangible items. Unclaimed property means money... potentially your money. It consists of cash or other financial assets considered lost or abandoned when a business cannot find the rightful owner after a savings accounts, uncashed checks, life insurance payments, death benefits, utility deposits and escrow refunds.

According to Christy Roach, Adams County Treasurer, there are 2,145 claimable properties belonging to individuals and $143,408 available current and past residents of our county, chances are some of that money could be yours. It only takes a minute to see if your name is in the unclaimed money database.

Roach goes on to explain "UCP will keep lost or forgotten
