Dear Mr. Dreher

The following is my response to item # 3 on the Notice of Error Reply

Two points of diversion were marked in the original report made in August 2006 by Jack Ellis. The secondary point of diversion shown on the map in the Preliminary Recommendation is for a ditch that would have to be reinstated. The primary point of diversion was omitted from the Preliminary Recommendation; the omitted point of diversion is an irrigation pump that is the only source relied upon at this time. In speaking with Ken Knoblock, Friday, December 1, he recommended including a map of the proposed additional point of diversion.

Thank you

To whom it may concern,

Attached are a Notice of Claim to a Water Right (4 pages), and a check covering the fee for filing. I am currently residing in California so was unable to go to one of your claims offices. I hope that I have interpreted your claim forms correctly and have sent the right amount. I determined the amount as follows:

$50.00	flat fee
$13.00	$1.00 per acre
$63.00	total

As explained on the form, the section (27) where my property is located is irregular in shape. When determining 1/64 sections I did it as though it were regular, therefore each 1/64th section is larger than 10 acres (note picture). I hope that this is correct. If there are any changes necessary please contact me.

Thank you,
