To Idaho Dept. Of Water Resources:

This letter is in regards to a notice I received dated December 2, 1998. I am not a new land owner but wanted to change the name and P.O. Box on your mailings. I was instructed to provide the enclosed information. To clarify this for you. I purchased the property in Feb. 1982 as Linda A. Smith, a single person. In December 1990, I married David A. Walton and we jointly owned the property and I became Linda A. Walton, our P.O. Box changed from 1114 to P.O. Box 22. In June 1993 we bought surrounding property and water rights. In April 1994, my husband, David, was killed in an accident and shortly thereafter, I went through probate and became the beneficiary of the estate. Hopefully this clarifies the name and address change I was referring to. Please call with any further questions. Although, I will not be available for any calls until the first of March because I will be out of the country on vacation until then. Thank you for your attention to this matter. I'm also interested if there is someone in Salmon I could speak with for any further questions.

Sincerely,

Linda A. Walton
