I spoke with Susan Barrett on the phone in regards to the date of priority on her claim. I can confirm a year built date of 1971. She said that the current home was built in 1971, but there was an original home there that predated this. I told her she could get a written statement from someone with direct knowledge about the first homestead to be used as evidence. She said she would talk to Paul, the son of the family she bought the property from. I finished the conversation by saying if the son can confirm a date before 1950 (her claimed date) she would be able to amend the claim to accurately represent when water was first used on the property. She will mail the written statement to my attention.
